CAR AIR

'52

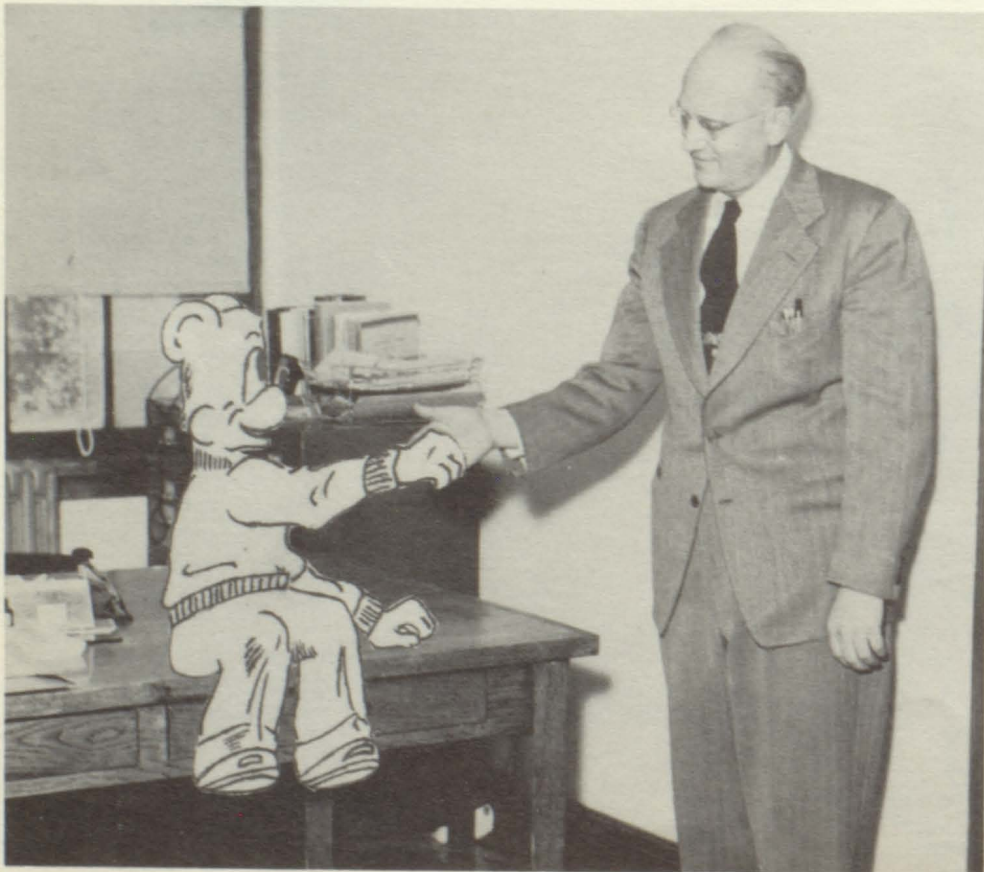

This is Mac, an artist's conception
Of the man to provide a snitzy reception
And to guide TRAIL readers from section to section
Through the booklet admired with the greatest affection.

THE

Mr. Nimitz congratulates Mac as a senior and extends his best wishes for the future.

TRAIL

As surely as we hold this annual today, the future of the world rests in our hands. Just as many kinds of hands shape a ball of clay, so must we shape our future. To mold our lives well, our hands must be useful and strong, controlled by mature and diligent minds.

So here it is—the '52 TRAIL. The staff hopes you like it.

GOVERNMENT

If Senator Snort decided to try
To louse up the system at Sidney High
Of our government so sure and strong
He'd get booted back where his kind belong.
On bad politicians our school doesn't dote;
There's never been buying or selling of vote.

"May the best person win" is what we believe;
The best man, the most votes will always receive.
No mink coats or deep freezes given away;
To get into office, no use of foul play.
The government's patterned where we go to school
After that of the honest elephant and mule.

Orrin J. Weymouth,
AB, MA

Orrin J. Weymouth, superintendent of Sidney schools, came to Sidney to make his home 27 years ago. The first course he taught was English ("and was it tough") at a school in Sidney. He's married and when asked if he had any children he answered, "Yes, and how." His hobby is fishing if he ever could find time. The words he likes to hear most are, "Here's the ten spot I borrowed," and the words he likes to say most are, "Thanks, I'll take it." He states that his most embarrassing moment is unprintable. His pet peeve—"I'm not mad. I love everything and everybody." Mr. Weymouth thinks high school students are o.k. They are a lot more on the ball than the oldsters give them credit for.

Our Executives

Albert E. Nimtze,
AB, MA

Albert E. Nimtze likes to fish, but it's a sadly neglected hobby. Mr. Nimtze is the principal of the high school. He's married and has one child. They've lived in Sidney for six years. His most embarrassing moment was when he forgot his lines in a grade school play. His pet peeve is students and teachers who do not have things in on time. "Here's that raise for services rendered," are the words he likes to hear most. He has always wanted to be a teacher. When asked why he liked sunrise the most of all the hours of the day, he said because he could look at the day with all its hopes and aspirations. He thinks high school students are normal, happy individuals.

Faculty

Glenn Ackerson, AB

Glenn Ackerson taught the "x's" and "y's" of algebra and the fundamentals of general science to the students who wanted to learn. Extra time was spent with the Black Knights and the senior class . . . If your pet peeve is the wind in Western Nebraska, you and Art Bauer have something in common. A junior class sponsor, Mr. Bauer taught biology and coached the football team. His favorite motto is "To achieve, you must endure." . . . Sponsoring the Hi-Life and the Trail was Dorothy Becker. She helped the juniors and the seniors through the more difficult phases of English and kept the journalism class busy. Miss Becker's pet peeve is lunch students who leave crumbs and coke bottles on chairs in 102 which the fourth period students have to use . . . If you want to learn about industrial arts, Don Burrows is the man to see. Don't try it without a pink slip though. He was also the assistant freshman coach and a freshman sponsor. "Of all monarchs, Nature is the most just in the enactment of laws, and the most severe in punishing the violation of them," is his favorite quotation . . . Modern problems, American history, and driver's education were taken over the second semester by Carl Crouse. He was also the sponsor of the junior class and the Cheyenne County government at SHS . . . The saying, "Is that clear?" will tell the girls of the home economics I, II, and III who is speaking. Genevieve Fitch is the sponsor of the FHA and the senior class. Popping gum is her pet peeve . . . When they hear "Be here at quarter to eight in the morning," all band members immediately think of Dean Killion. Those same people will know that Mr. Killion's pet peeve is not getting somewhere on time. A sponsor of the sophomore class, his time was spent with group lessons, private lessons, and the organization of grade school bands.

Ray Maley, BA, ME

Any one interested in world history, trades, or world geography has probably been in one of Ray Maley's classes. A freshman sponsor, Mr. Maley helped the under classmen with their athletics . . . Senior class and pep club sponsor, Mabel Nielsen taught general mathematics, geometry, and girls' physical education, and her pet peeve is not having enough pep in the pep club, and her favorite saying is, "Class begins at nine o'clock, Jack." . . . Ellenora Nimitz took over the job of teaching the freshmen English the second semester. Mrs. Nimitz's pet peeve is poor spelling. She was a freshman sponsor . . . Books, books, and more books were handled by Verna Robinson. Any one who spends at least one period in library during the day will soon learn that Miss Robinson detests unnecessary talking. She was a freshman class sponsor . . . When you hear, "Have a Coca-Cola!" you know that Lucille Selzer is handing out free advertisement for her husband. Mrs. Selzer, the school nurse, teaches Red Cross home nursing. Her pet peeve is absences at important demonstrations in class . . . Discussions of farm produce, livestock, and agricultural issues filled the day of Louis Neuman, who trained the Sidney high boys in vocational agriculture. "Agriculturally speaking, political plums do not come from seed—they come from clever grafting," are words that seem to appeal to Mr. Neuman . . . This year Sidney high government is in the capable hands of Bess Shires again. Besides this duty, Miss Shires teaches first and second years of English. A sophomore class sponsor, her pet peeve is students who don't enjoy working.

Leo Shuman, AB

Leo Shuman is the physics teacher and the coach of the basketball and track teams. He also has charge of the boys' physical education class. Downtown coaches are his pet peeve. He is a sponsor of the sophomore class and the "S" club . . . When her car is stuck or it won't run, Helen Smith experiences her most embarrassing moment. Mrs. Smith took over the job of teaching vocal music the second semester; therefore, her favorite saying is, "After all—I'm just a substitute." The word that she thinks is said most often by her is, "Quiet!" in chorus . . . Renee Strom's day was filled with the clatter of typewriter keys and Spanish expressions. Miss Strom states her pet peeve is people who rip their paper out of the typewriter five minutes before the bell rings. As a junior class sponsor, she was in charge of the junior-senior banquet. She was also co-sponsor of the pep club . . . A junior class sponsor, Mary Winn was busy teaching book-keeping, shorthand, and typing II. Her pet peeve is people who don't act as if they had good sense, especially in high school assemblies. Her favorite saying—"Dinner's ready!" . . . Another junior class sponsor was Vergal Winn. In order not to be classed with the people of his pet peeve, talking in an undertone, you would enroll in one of his classes, speech. Other classes he taught were advanced mathematics and audio-visual aids. His favorite saying is, "You can take a horse to water, but you can't make him drink." . . . John Miller is one of the custodians at Sidney high. His hobby is fishing and his pet peeve is muddy shoes. He had his most exciting moments while he was working for the railroad . . . John Edzard is the other custodian. He enjoys collecting odd knives and his favorite saying is, "A stitch in time save nine."

CLASSES

High school is a four-runged ladder.
Four big steps in four big years.
In them one finds mixed experiences—
Joy, and pleasures, worries, fears.

Freshman, Soph'more, Junior, Senior.
Something new for all each day.
You learn something every moment
As you tread the high school way.

Tho it's true you have bad moments;
They seem petty when they're o'er,
And they're far out ranked by pleasures;
By the good things ten times more.

SENIORS?? Yes! This was taken way back when—eighth grade to be exact. How high school has changed us!

Mansions of Mephisto

Was the theme of the annual Junior-Senior banquet held on May 4, 1951.

The "little devil" guards the door in the midst of his fire and brew.

Here are the waiters and waitresses of last year's banquet in their most likely attire.

The newly decorated banquet room stands ready for the guests.

The seniors are the spades
In the Sidney high school pack.
As far as school society goes
They really "ball the jack."
They're very much envied
By the diamonds, hearts, and clubs,
But they've reached the top the hard way,
Suffered bruises, knocks, and rubs.

You can see they're to be envied,
But don't envy them too much.
We'll take a different aspect
With a pessimistic touch.
The spades are highest bluebloods,
But here's the dismal tone:
They're basking in earned glory now;
Next year they're on their own.

Senior Class History

Back in the fall of '49, the seniors started work right away, by electing Marcelyn Dedrick, governor; Charles Bagby, Lt. governor; Beverly Wasser, secretary; and Carletta Farmer, treasurer.

We gave the upper classmen a reason to stare at us by doing comic character costumes for initiation. We were also forced to carry out the wishes of the upper classmen for the one day.

Those on the reserve field carrying the football were Dean Wise, Stan Smith, Max Adams, George Barlow, Jon McWilliams, Jack Wiedeberg, and Ronald Rogers. Those sinking the basketball were George Barlow, Charles Bagby, Jon McWilliams, Jack Wiedeberg, Don Sabin, Larry Tobler, Stan Smith, Bill Welch, Ronald Rogers, Max Adams, Dean Wise, and Richard Amen.

Miss Robinson, Mrs. Winn, and Mr. Ackerson supervised the production of our talents and interests.

"Murder" provided the best entertainment for our class party on November 12. We presented our class program in the form of a television show, "A Day in Sidney High School," on March 31.

The two who were chosen as candidates for Valentine Sweetheart were Bonita Hazlitt and Jeanne Livingston.

We started out our sophomore year with a bang by electing Don Sabin, governor; Jeanne Livingston, Lt. governor; Beverly Wasser, secretary; and Joan Mahaffey, treasurer.

In October we staged an all high school masquerade dance which was one of the highlights of the season. Our class day program was presented February 28 and was based on the film, "Every Day Courtesy." Pantomimes and music were worked around the caption, "Your Manners are Showing." The big question of the day was "How do you rate?"

Our state was efficiently sponsored by Miss Shires, Mr. Ackerson, and Mr. Neuman.

Donna Wilson was elected Valentine Sweetheart, giving our class something else to boast of.

We elected Bill Bolz as governor; Dean Wise, Lt. governor; Bill Welch, secretary; and Jeanne Livingston, treasurer; to guide us through another year of high school.

Our first big event was in November when we presented "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

On February 4, the following juniors represented Sidney high at the County Government day: Charles Bagby, Pat Bright, Sharon Daniels, Arlina Harte, Bonita Hazlitt, Lucille Kampbell, Jeanne Livingston, Joan Mahaffey, Glenna Smith, Pat Stewart, Larry Tobler, Bev Wasser, Bill Welch, and Donna Wilson.

"World of the Future" was the title of the program we presented on March 16. It took place in the year 2051.

The highlight of our year came on May 4, when we robbed our treasury to entertain the seniors with the annual Junior-Senior banquet. The theme was "Mansions of Mephisto."

When our senior year rolled around we elected Charles Bagby, governor; Don Sabin, Lt. governor; Pat Stewart, secretary; and Carol Tremain, treasurer.

We had our annual senior sneak day on March 24, and the long awaited day was greatly welcomed.

We were entertained at the annual Junior-Senior banquet in May. The theme was "Arabian Nights."

Baccalaureate was held May 18. Our big night, commencement, which opened the gates to the future, was May 21.

The Juniors are the workers of the hive.
It's good that they are not the smallest class.
With all the labor that is done by them,
They must be strongly built, have lots of brass.
Their honey is not gathered from the flowers;
'Tis "moola," "cabbage," "lettuce," or "the green."

This lovely stuff they worship so is used
For a honey of a banquet in the spring.

1951-52 Is Busy Year for Juniors

The junior class started off by electing as class officers Cleo Kennedy, governor; Jo Ann Brumfield, lieutenant governor; Dolores Fisher, secretary of state; and Jo Ann Norris, secretary of treasury. Elected as legislators and representatives were Dale Borchert, Alberta Gentle, Georgia Bess, Gwen Jacob, Allyn Dee Whitmire, Edith Vining, Marsha Planck, Phyllis Moody, Jim Ziegler, Floyd Martinez, Carl Beebe, and Jack Nienhuser. Sergeant-at-arms and assistant sergeant were Sharon Olsen and Dion Cawthra.

The biggest event for the juniors was the class play, GREAT CAESAR'S GHOST, directed by Mr. Virgil Winn.

The juniors have sponsored two school dances. Many of the juniors helped the seniors put out the '52 Trail.

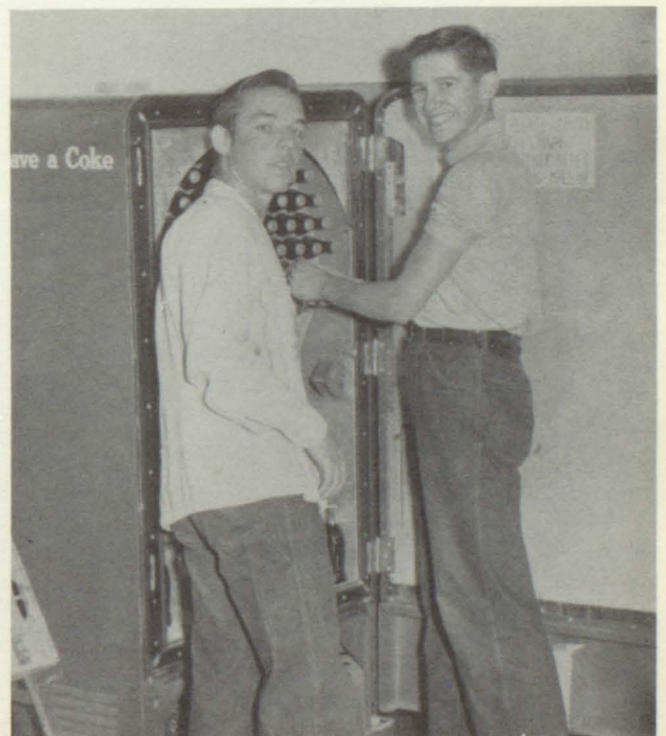

On County Government day, March 3, the following juniors represented Sidney high school; Dolores Fisher, Edith Vining, Cleo Kennedy, James Cullins, Jack Nienhuser, Marsha Planck, Alberta Gentle, Carol Hancock, Darrell Glassburn, Dale Borchert, Phyllis Moody, and Don Vincent.

The junior program was held in the spring.

The juniors have undertaken various money-making schemes such as selling at football and basketball games and dances and taking care of the coke machine.

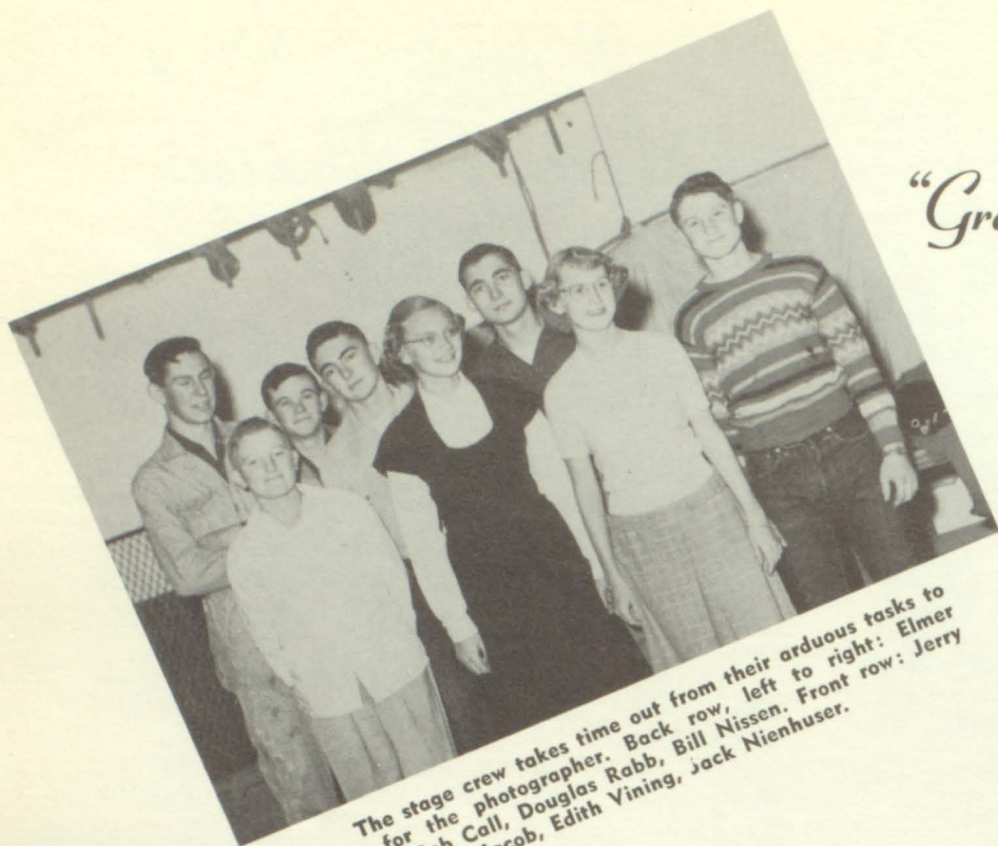

Watching over the juniors this year were their sponsors, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Winn, Miss Renee Strom and Mr. Art Bauer, who have guided them well.

The main event of the year is the annual Junior-Senior banquet. The juniors put on the affair for the seniors at the end of the school term. This year's theme was "Arabian Nights." The theme was carried out extremely well.

Seventy-one sophomores ended the year with their annual picnic.

A soph'more's in an awkward age,
 He thinks he knows it all;
 He's far above a freshie,
 But really very small.
 Don't be so hard on sophie,
 There's a reason that he's puffed;
 He's passed the lowly rank of frosh,
 A veteran, worn and scuffed.
 He's not the lowest one of all,
 Good reason that he gloats;
 So remember, treat him kindly,
 And let him feel his oats.

Freshmen Class History

Dazed—but not for long—the freshmen soon got their bearings and began discovering that school days were busy, active days. Although high school was a new experience for the freshmen, they got off to a good start by being initiated into Sidney high.

Their many potential athletic stars were loyally supported by the frosh cheerleaders—Charlene Anthony, Sharon Armstrong, and Janet Hartmann—along with fellow classmates who were present at the freshmen games. Through out the school year they did more than their share in the work and play that are necessary in school life.

In assemblies, chorus, band, and all clubs they showed great enthusiasm and cooperation. Without a doubt, this was one of the most outstanding groups of freshmen ever to be enrolled at Sidney high.

Freshman, now ye've entered these fair halls
 Ye feared to meet,
 Don't shiver like lime jello
 From your head down to your feet.
 Hold your head erect and face life
 With a happy heart.
 All things great and powerful
 Had a tiny, timid start.

You've four fine years ahead of you
 In good old Sidney high.
 Be glad you're strong and youthful,
 Be glad you're young and spry.
 Make use of them and use them well,
 Don't fill them full of strife.
 You'll look back when they're gone to stay,
 The best years of your life.

Though you're just a freshie
 And out-numbered two to one,
 Each person has his part to do;
 Jump in and join the fun.
 Just step right up and do your part;
 Don't be an emerald schmoe,
 And you'll be glad when vacation's here
 That you've got three years to go.

The wooden soldiers from the toy shop in the Christmas program are Tom Gilliland, Ray Hand- sel, Ronnie Brown, Lovel Shuman.

ACTIVITIES

Variety is the spice of life,
Or so the sages say.
And spice we've got at SHS,
Sometimes so much, we've got a mess.
Activities are really crammed
Into the High school day.

'Way back when—when Dad was young,
He stayed at home to study.
He labored almost every night;
To stay out late just wasn't right.
Life for Pop was much too tame.
Was he just a fuddy-duddy?

At SHS besides the job
Of filling up the cranium,
There are the extra things to do,
There's always fun for me and you.
In fact, this life is snappier
Than playing with uranium.

There are 75 members in pep club for the year 1951-52. Initiation was held November 2 for 30 girls. You can always tell a pep club girl on game day by her maroon sweater, black skirt, white tailored blouse, and saddle shoes.

As it had been a custom in the past, the pep club sponsored the Valentine Sweetheart. Carol Tremain was chosen for this honor and was presented during the half of the Ogallala game, February 12.

The pep club banquet which is held in the spring honoring the athletes is financed by dues, selling honors during Homecoming, and selling programs during the football season.

On honor day, the seniors were presented with a rose as a token of remembrance. All other members were given a chevron that they had earned during the last year.

The pep club is organized to aid in boosting high school activities and to promote the ideals of Sidney high school.

Boys' and Girls' Staters

Charles Bagby and Jeanne Livingston represented SHS at boys' state and girls' state which was held at Lincoln last summer. Students from the junior class are chosen by the faculty and the clubs sponsoring them to go.

Boys' state is sponsored by the Rotary International and the Lions club. The Business and Professional Women's club and the American Legion auxiliary sponsor the girl.

These conclaves provide much entertainment as well as practical information about government.

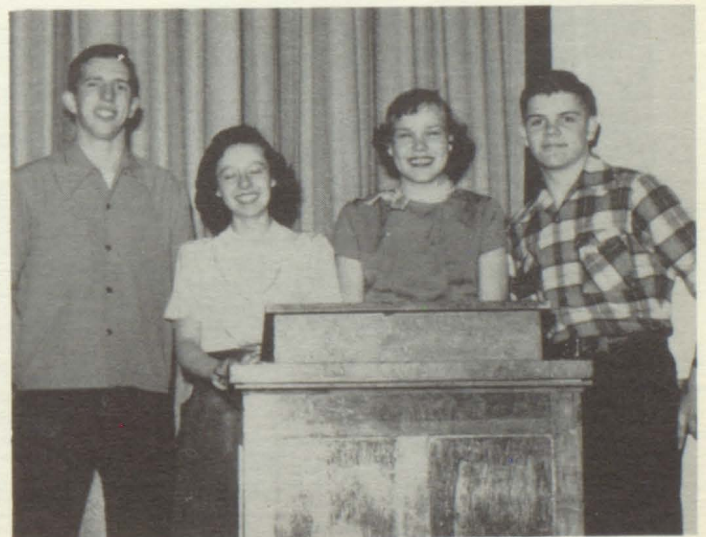

Shown above are Jeanne Livingston and Charles Bagby, chosen to attend boys' and girls' state.

Oratorical Contestants

Charles Bagby won the oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion which was held on March 14. Second place winner was Robert Mahr. The speeches were all based on the Constitution.

Extemporaneous speeches were given afterwards by the four contestants.

The 24 girls in FHA had a busy year during 1951-52. The club sent representatives to the state convention in Lincoln and 12 representatives to a district convention in Chappell.

During National FHA Week the group attended church in a body and sponsored a clothing drive for which they collected a total of 1100 pounds of clothing.

They adopted a German home economics class and sent letters and Christmas boxes to them.

The theme of their Christmas party was "Christmas in Other Lands." They also sponsored the FHA-FFA dance.

They closed their year with election of officers for the next school year. At the installation of new officers, they had a tea for their parents.

Purpose of the Future Farmers of America is to develop leadership, character, citizenship and scholarship among its members, all of whom are students enrolled in vocational agriculture. Under their sponsor, Mr. Louis Neuman, the boys have helped with the Cheyenne County junior fair, the state wheat show, the Soil Conservation program and the Noxious Weed program.

To improve the scholastic standing, the chapter encourages its members to take part in district and state contests; these include livestock, poultry, grain, farm management, farm accounts and dairy management. To train for leadership, public speaking and parliamentary procedure contests are participated in at district events.

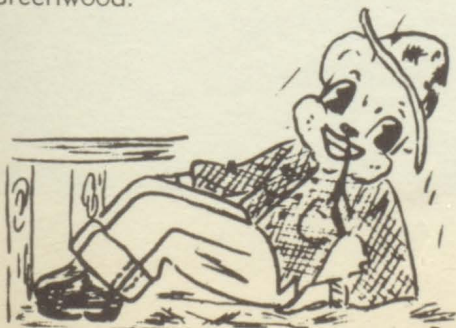

However, not all of the activities are of a serious nature, as the club sponsored an overnight fishing trip to Kingsley Dam, organized a basketball team and a Future Farmers and Future Homemakers of America picnic to Greenwood.

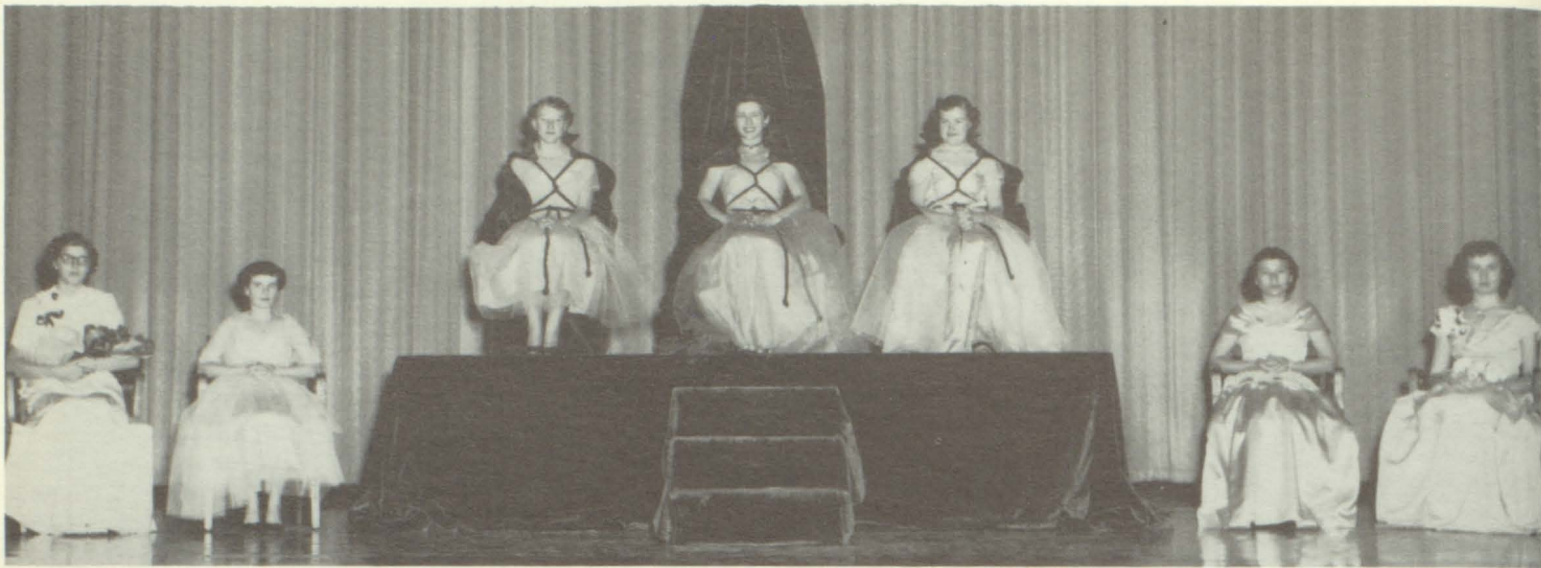

A livestock judging team made up of Wendell Johnson, Elmer Brauer, Ronald McMillen and Clark Schaffert won second place at North Platte. A team consisting of Bob Call, Ronald Karnik, and Bob Nightingale took second place at the State Junior Grain Judging contest held at the local auditorium.

Homecoming

This year SHS had its first homecoming since 1929. The idea started in the journalism class and quickly took hold of the entire school when suggested in the Hi-Life.

November 16 was set for Homecoming day with the Kimball Longhorns as the opposing football team.

Five senior girls were nominated for homecoming queen—Marcelyn Dedrick, JoAnn Kinney, Joan Mahaffey, Melba Phelps, and Beverly Wasser.

During an assembly on Homecoming day, Charles Bagby crowned Marcelyn Dedrick queen with JoAnn Kinney and Joan Mahaffey as attendants. She was also presented at the half time period of the game. At the same assembly Mrs. Nat Baker and Guy Doran were honored as the oldest alums.

Pep club added to the celebration by selling white mums with maroon s's on them.

It is the hope of the senior class and the whole school that this will become an annual affair.

Obviously enjoying themselves at the homecoming dance are Melba Phelps, George Barlow, Marcelyn Dedrick, Jack Wiedeberg, Bev Wasser, and Monty Edwards.

S-Club

These men have muscles for athletic tussles.

S-Club sponsored by Coach Leo Shuman consists of lettermen from the three major sports, football, basketball, and track. If any of the boys earn major letters, they automatically become a member.

This year's group of 29 is headed by George Barlow, with Darrell Glassburn to lead them next year. There are no regular meetings or dues; their main project is the S-Club dance, which is traditionally held after the pep club banquet for lettermen. At this time, the president crowns the athletic queen whom the boys have elected. Each year the club elects an honorary football and basketball captain.

It's true that here at Sidney high
Of muscles we've no lack.

Some solid as a rock,
Some have the right kind of wind

But what is most important,
Though at vict'ry they don't jeer,
They can face defeat as well as win.
They deserve your loudest cheer.

THE SEASON

Coached by ex-Cornhusker Art Bauer, the Maroons came up with a creditable record of eight wins and one loss. They proved their abilities by winning the Western Nebraska Panhandle conference championship. The high scoring team chalked up 291 points to their opponents' 59.

The Maroons started the season by crushing the Bridgeport 11 to the tune of 38 to 0. George Barlow, scored twice and Anderson, Glassburn, McWilliams, and Seevers each tallied once. Loud were the cheers of the Sidney fans.

Next the Maroons invaded Curtis. The Aggies proved too strong, and the Maroons lost 20 to 7. McWilliams scored the only Maroon touchdown. "Oh well, watch us when we meet Mitchell!"

Monty Edwards started the flame of hope again as he scored the lone touchdown which beat Mitchell 7 to 0. "Now we're on our way."

Numerous fans followed the player's bus to Gordon and were not disappointed as Barlow scored four TD's to lead the victory: Sidney 59, Gordon 13. "Next stop—Ogallala!"

Then came the scalping of the Ogallala Indians, 20 to 0. McWilliams, Glassburn, and Rogers scored. "Bring on Oshkosh!"

It was a very sad day for Oshkosh when the Maroons rolled in. The undefeated Eagles were no more! The Maroons clipped their wings, 28 to 0. "In front of Gregg McBride, too!"

Championship bound, the mighty Maroons trounced Gering, 34 to 6. McWilliams scored three times and Rogers twice. "Chappell—here we come!"

Avenging last year's score, the Maroons toppled the Chappell Buffaloes, 46 to 7.

The Maroons then went on to clinch the title by walloping Kimball 52 to 13.

On the ground the Maroons rolled up a total of 2,906 yards with an average of 6.76 yards per carry. The kick-off average was 44.55 yards per kick against their opponents' 38 yard average.

In the ball-toting department, McWilliams and Rogers were tied at 7.8 yards per carry. Barlow was second with 43 points, and Rogers a close third with 42 points.

Jon McWilliams was honored as Western Nebraska's most valuable player by the Scottsbluff Star Herald and received a large trophy. Jon was also elected to the all-state Class B team. Other members receiving honors were George Barlow, Charles Bagby, Dean Wise, and Monty Edwards.

'52 Cage Season

Coach Leo Shuman, coaching his last basketball team, came up with one of his best teams in recent years. The 1951-52 basketball cagers show an impressive season with a 14-5 record.

The Sidney five started out slow with a loss to North Platte, but came back and beat Bayard and Lodgepole by big scores.

The team won from Kimball and Chappell by close margins before losing to Gothenburg, Alliance and Gering. The Maroons then caught fire and went through the rest of the regular season undefeated, winning seven games in a row.

The highlights of the season were winning from Kimball, Chappell and Mitchell on their home floors for the first time since 1945. The Mitchell game was also the one-hundredth game won by Coach Shuman's basketball teams since he began coaching at Sidney high.

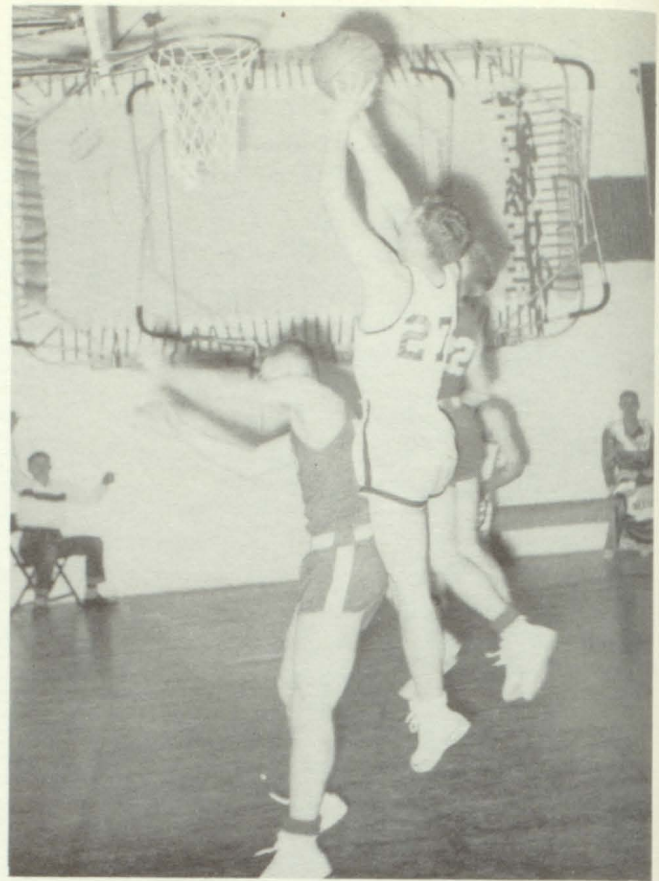

In the District Class B tournament held at Scottsbluff the Maroons defeated Bridgeport and Kimball only to lose to Gering in the finals and place as runner-up.

Sidney high's freshman basketball team held the Western Nebraska Freshman cage title with 15 victories and no defeats during the season. The frosh also won from Julesburg but lost to Peetz reserves and Sterling high's frosh in Colorado competition.

In Nebraska play the Sidney Little Maroons totaled 653 points to 367 for the opposition in the 15 games for a 44 point game average. The Maroon's opponents rang up a 25 point average in the series.

This year's season completed a seven year record for Sidney's frosh of 72 wins and 28 losses.

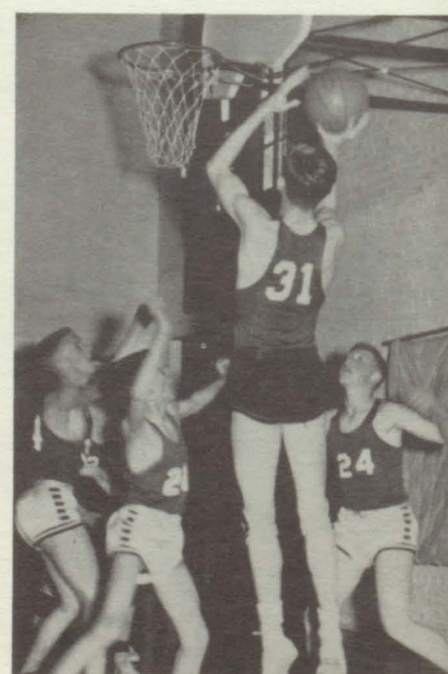

The 1951-52 record with the Little Maroon's score first is as follows:

St. Pat's, 42-17; 13-12; Junior High, 30-15; Bridgeport, 49-24; Lorenzo, 50-24; Peetz, 35-47, 35-31; Dalton, 45-36; Alliance, 50-24; Sidney Vo-Ag, 27-25; Kimball, 41-4; Potter, 51-24; Sterling, 49-50; Oshkosh, 52-27; Julesburg, 49-30; Big Springs, 69-41; Ogallala, 50-34; Lodgepole, 51-45.

Track

Maroons opened their cinder season with a duel meet with Kimball. Sidney won 11 events out of 14 and wound up with a score of 103 to 39. Harden took high honors for the meet by taking the high jump, pole vault and the shot. Others scoring firsts were McWilliams in the high hurdles and the broad jump; Rogers, 100 yard dash; Sabin, the 440; and Brauer, the mile.

In the Western Nebraska meet held at Scottsbluff, Sidney placed fourth in the teams that competed in group 2. Mitchell was first with 72½ points followed by Torrington and Gering. The mile relay team, William Bolz, Jack Nienhuser, George Barlow, and Don Sabin, took first place with a time of 3:51.1.

John Harden tied for first place in the high jump. Sidney's other marks were made by Stan Smith, third in pole vault; Ron Rogers, fourth in discus; fourth in the 280 yard high hurdle shuttle, fourth in the 480 yard low hurdle, and third in the distance medley.

At the annual Sidney Invitational track meet Sidney led four teams. Sidney accumulated 48½ points to second-place Minatare's 40 points. John Harden scored first in the 60 yard high hurdles and high jump; Jon McWilliams, first in the broad jump; and Stan Smith, first in the pole vault.

In the Panhandle B track and field meet at Bayard, the Maroons placed sixth. Five boys qualified for the state track meet—Harden in the pole vault, Barlow in the 440, and the mile relay team.

The 1951 freshman track team won three meets and placed second in another during the season. They won from junior high, 84 to 40, and from Kimball, 102 to 27. They also took the Frosh Invitational in a four team meet. Their only loss was from Sterling, 50 to 54. In six years the Sidney frosh have won 18 first places, three second places, and one third place.

MUSIC

BLAT! SQUEEK! GROAN!
DO-RE-MI.
Which is worse?
Don't ask me.
Music's fine
Any day,
But such sour notes
We sing and play.
Our poor parents suffer
While we learn;
Such awful noises
Make them burn.
But keep on trying,
This I know so—
Some day will bring
A virtuoso.

If you were a visitor to SHS during the second and third periods, you would probably hear beautiful music floating through the halls. This lovely harmony would no doubt come from the mixed chorus or one of the glee clubs.

This was an interesting and varied year for the vocal music department of SHS. Mrs. Patricia Killion was the instructor in charge of all vocal groups. During the second semester Mrs. Helen Smith substituted for Mrs. Killion.

In addition to the three large groups pictured on these pages, there were several active small groups which afforded much enjoyment whenever they sang in public.

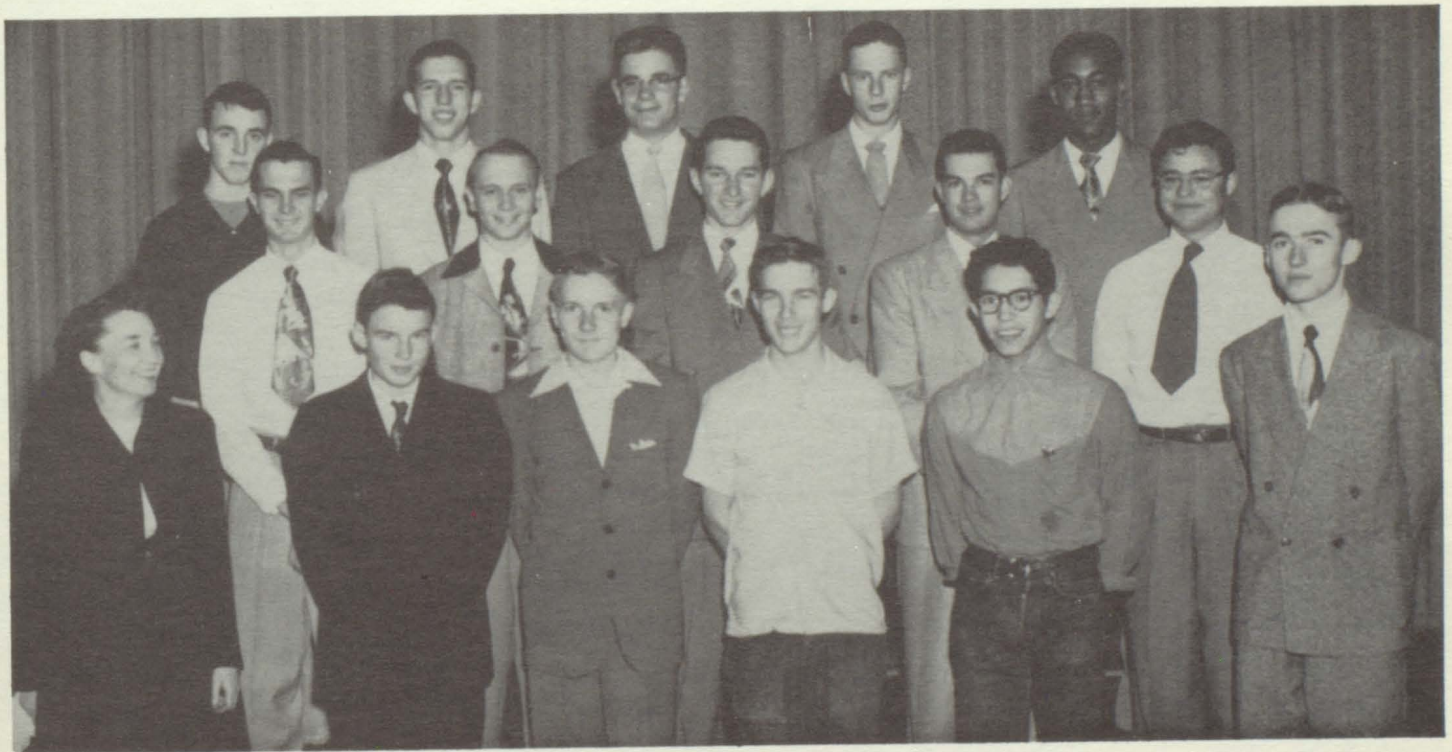

Highlights of the year were the Christmas program under Mrs. Killion's direction and the spring concert which Mrs. Smith presented.

Pictured at the left and below are two informal views of the chorus rehearsing with Mrs. Smith.

"Through rain, sleet or snow" . . . that was Sidney's band when there was marching to do between halves of a game. But despite some nasty weather, it was more than worth it, especially to the seniors who had waited long for a real marching band.

This year's flute trio is made up of Donna Steward, Cleo Kennedy, and Margie Copley.

Though they didn't travel to any out-of-town games, the pep band did more than its share at our pep rallies, often playing extras like "Brass Band Boogie" and "Goofus."

The SHS band had an active school year. In the fall Mr. Killion had band members marching every morning, learning "to the rear," "double to the rear," "left flank," and a number of other maneuvers entirely new to the band. Results of this drill were shown in half-time performances the band could be proud of and parades through town with "The Strawberry Blond" and "Sound Off" echoing down the streets.

The first trip of the year was to band day at Scottsbluff where several bands from the Panhandle participated. Then more drill and finally the wonderful trip to band day at Lincoln.

As soon as marching season was over, the band started working on the detailed business of learning to play! One of the first performances was for the benefit of students wanting to know about instruments and who were interested in joining the band. Then started the job of practicing for the Mid-Winter concert in January. It was work, but the improvement was worth it.

In February the Sterling band gave a performance here and in March the SHS band traveled to Colorado for a return engagement. April found members working on contest numbers. A pre-contest program was held, and on April 17 and 18 the real contest at Scottsbluff was attended.

Caught bright and early one morning is the SHS band diligently practicing for the trip to Sterling.

Part of the band is shown during one of its many outstanding half-time performances.

CLASSROOM ACTIVITIES

In class we're always serious,
We never play around.
We're such little angels
We never make a sound.
We're always interested
In what the teachers say;
We pay most strict attention,
Our thoughts never stray.
We don't do a thing but study,
Don't even crack a smile
To that special person
That sits across the aisle.
Wisdom always sticks
Inside our heads like glue.
We're all as good as we can be;
Could this be me or you?

The '52 annual staff wishes to express its appreciation to Bill Nissen for his photography, James Neuman for his poetry, and other juniors who worked on the book. We are especially grateful to the Alvin Duis Studio and the Thompson Photo Service for their assistance which made the 1952 Trail possible.
