Fifty Years Along the Trail

The Trail
1958

Sidney High School
Sidney, Nebraska

Fifty years have gone marching
Down the avenue of time
Since our annual was first published
Since the Trail found its perfect rhyme
Golden are the memories
Reaped on many a happy day
Of tears and laughter mingled
Now safely tucked away

Parent Advisory Board

To the Students of
Sidney High School:

During this, the fiftieth and Golden Anniversary for the Trail, I should like to congratulate each of you for your accomplishments.

You too have had golden opportunities for self-improvement while attending Sidney High School. I know most of you have taken advantage of your opportunities.

If we have an outstanding school, and I'm sure we have, it is largely because of the cooperation and loyalty of the student body.

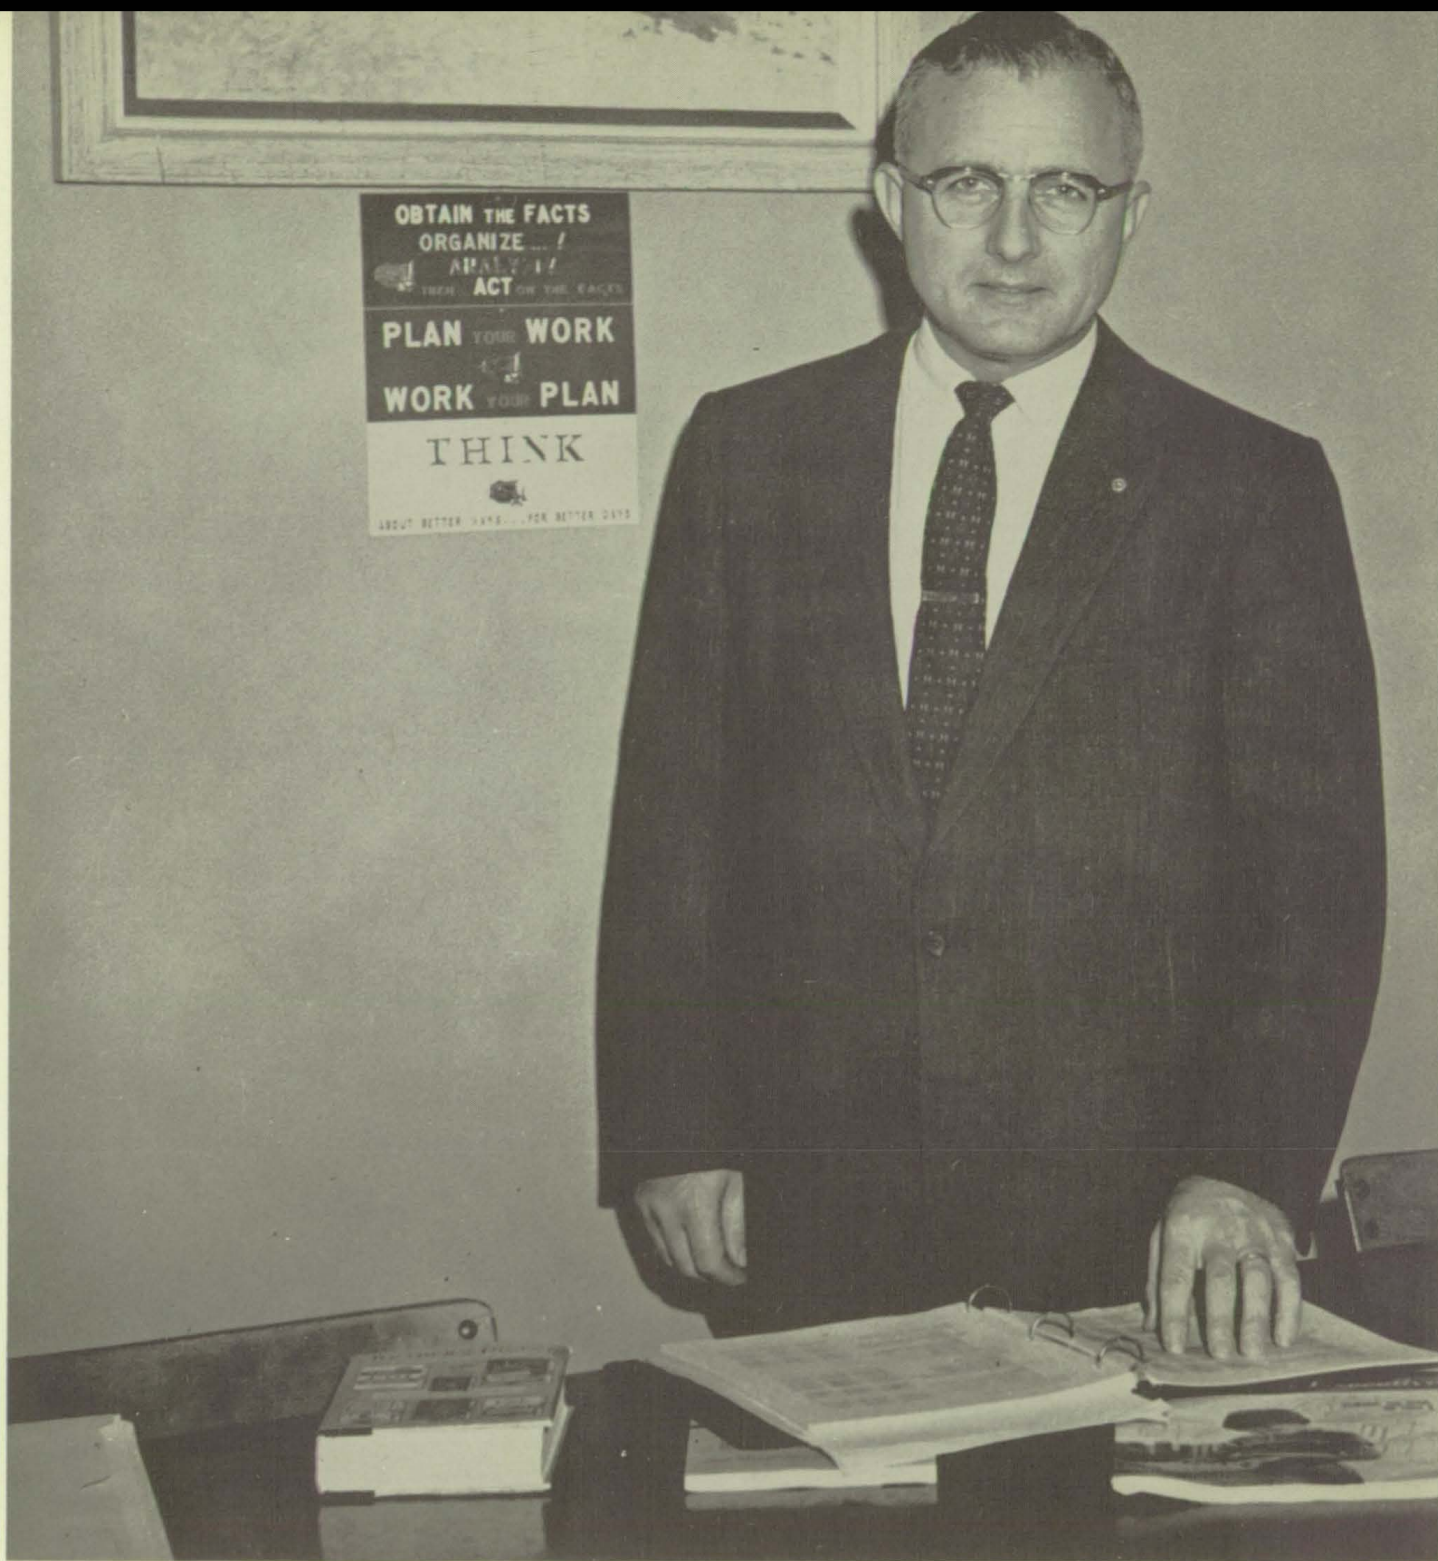

What you have gained in the way of learning, honesty, cooperation, and sense of responsibility will enable each of you to have many future golden years.

I wish the best of everything for each of you.

O. J. Weymouth
Superintendent of Schools

MEL A. EVERINGHAM, Assistant Superintendent and High School Principal

All students and faculty of the Sidney High School are to be congratulated for the many fine accomplishments of this school year. We especially wish to commend the sponsors and staff of the TRAIL for a most excellent report of school life for the year 1957-'58.

As you know this is the Golden Anniversary for the TRAIL. Thus, we believe that it is particularly appropriate that each of us resolve that this year will be the year of golden opportunities.

It is our hope that each of you will continue to take advantage of all of your opportunities in school and in your community.

Sandy Lewis relates her experiences at Girls' State during a National Assembly.

Calling the meeting to order, Kay Thomas fulfills her duties as Speaker of the House.

We Salute Our Future Statesmen

Tom Rogers is seen showing off some of the souvenirs he received during his stay at Boys' State.

Local and district winner of the '58 American Legion Oratorical Contest, Harry Northup, placed in the "I Speak for Democracy" contests and received a superior rating at the '57 District Speech contest at Chadron.

Cabinet members, Senators, and Representatives listen attentively as President Everingham presents his "state of the school" address. Seated in back from left to right: Kay Thomas, speaker of the house; Tom Rogers, Boy Stater; Sandra Lewis, Girl Stater; Joanne Baker, secretary of state; Jim Crowley, secretary of the interior; Mr. Tom Jones, vice president; Bob Samson, secretary of personnel; Barbara Cork, secretary of activities; and Sharon Christensen, secretary of the treasury.

Steve Peratt with Mrs. Ruby Spindler, clerk of the district court.

County Government Day, annually a golden day for the juniors in Cheyenne County, was sponsored by the American Legion. On this special day, the doors of the Court House were thrown wide open to approximately 125 students from eight high schools. It is hoped that through this program the students can see exactly what county jobs require, the responsibilities vested in these offices, and how they are handled.

Jerilynn George looks over school forms with Miss Edith Oldershaw, county superintendent of schools.

Bonjour Tous

The first day I went to Sidney High I was as scared as a little kid in kindergarten. I was so afraid by the possible critics and all these eyes that will stare at me! Yes, I have been of a great interest for everybody, but it has been such a friendly interest. What a wonderful school is Sidney High! What a nice spirit is its! I was graduated from one of the strict French public schools for girls in Lycee, and how I have enjoy to work and have activities with Sidney High. Lots of uses have surprised me here, especially at the beginning of my stay among you; I remember the first "Hi!" I received, and everyone making me startled by this greeting!

I remember the first Pep Club rally: It was in September. (I could not understand too much English at that moment!) I was in the corridor when suddenly I heard an awful big noise, and music, shoutings, screams, clapping hands . . .! Anxious, I wondered what it could be! It was not the Fourth of July! . . . I couldn't ask anybody because of my pronunciation, so I entered, discreet as a mouse, in the auditorium, and I saw there boys and girls jumping, laughing: some in strange clothes, dancing on the stage; teachers laughing too, cheering I did not know whom!

Of course, I thought, everybody here is crazy! . . . And I stood there watching all this excitement, very embarrassed to not be in the same mood.

One week after, I went too, as a Pep Club member to cheer my schoolmates, and to watch my first football game! (In France we use to play soccer.) I have been smitten by all this enthusiasm during a game, by such a great community spirit!

I have left for one year three younger brothers and one younger sister, but I have never been homesick here. I have found here such another nice family, and such a lot of sweet friends!

I was too a little afraid by the terrible winter here, but the sun shines so often, that it is really better than the winter in LePuy, the little town of twenty-five thousand inhabitants where I live in the hilly French southern-center part!

I have learned here lots of new fields; and I have enjoyed to learn the way I did; I liked this lively activity that characterizes Sidney High. Myself, I was in Masque and Gavel Club, I played in senior play, participated in a speech contest, wrote some articles for the paper, and gave some little speeches about the life in my country. It has really been for me a well filled year here!

Now I should like to tell you what I really wish, leaving you: I hope only to leave behind me the same wonderful remember that the one I will keep with me of Sidney, and more of Sidney High, 1958, of the wonderful and sweet people that constitute it!

Genevieve Abougit,

In 1908, Don Ahrens, the present vice president of General Motors, edited the first Trail. Fifty years later the Trail is celebrating its golden anniversary.

Throughout this golden year, we have strived to make this an annual to surpass all others. It is our sincere hope that we have captured the spirit and activities of the '57-'58 school year.

Will you be the teacher he will never forget? At a time when colleges and universities are doing their best to fulfill a demand for more and more well-trained teachers, questions such as this face the student who has chosen teaching as a career.

F.T.A., a nation-wide organization newly organized in Sidney, seeks to answer these questions and any others that might arise on a future teacher's golden road to success.

Throughout the year our Pep Club has received numerous praises from the faculty, alumni, and fellow students. And rightly so, under the guidance of Judith Townsend, president, and Miss Mitchell, sponsor, the SHS cheering section became the pride of our school.

Homecoming

What started as a rather dismal and damp day October 11 turned out to be a beautiful, golden one for Homecoming.

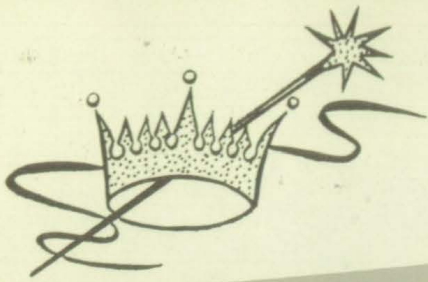

The afternoon festivities began with a parade led by the varsity band. Judy Townsend, accompanied by wild cheers from the juniors, presented a first place plaque to Junior Class President Jerry Felt for the class float entry.

Later that evening the big, long awaited moment finally arrived when Captain Ron Gilbreath presented the happy queen, Sandra Lewis, with a crown and a kiss during game halftime.

A dance, sponsored by the alumni, took place in the senior high gym after the victorious Maroons defeated Gering. There Judy Townsend crowned the new king, Mike Manuel, bringing to a close a golden day in Sidney High School.

Football Dads, honored guests at the Scottsbluff game September 27, watch with pride as their sons work valiantly for a touchdown. Annually a home game is distinguished as Dad's Night to pay tribute to these men, identified by their sons' football numbers. During the game the fathers sat in their place of honor along the sidelines; and at halftime ceremonies they were saluted by the Sidney High School Band. Listed below are the football Dads of '57; 20, H. H. Thomas; 21, A. C. Gilbreath; 22, J. J. White; 23, A. Yonekura; 24 and 46, R. Irwin; 25, A. W. Barber; 26, C. G. Osborn; 27, P. Hakes; 28, C. # Maroon Cagers Score a 54.4 Game Average Starting the season slow, Sidney dropped the first two contests to North Platte and Sterling by respective scores of 42-61 and 46-64.

The Maroons, sparked by a great defensive effort, defeated Chappell 50-48 for victory number one. The Sidney team then traveled to McCook where they lost a heartbreaker 40-41.

After Christmas vacation, the Maroons trounced Alliance 72-46 but lost number four to Cheyenne, rated first in Wyoming, and number five to Gering 50-69.

On the home court Sidney met Gothenburg and Ron Gilbreath dumped in 42 points, a school record, as the Maroons won in overtime, 65-63.

Sidney then ran into a three-game losing streak as Alliance stopped them 64-53, Ogallala won a hair-raiser 49-48, and Cheyenne clipped them 69-48. Then Kimball, too, hungry for a win, met Sidney and lost 72-53.

February saw Sidney defeat Gering 57-55. Gering, the week before, had defeated previously unbeaten Ogallala. Two days later, the Maroons played Scottsbluff to a standstill before losing 45-53.

Sidney then faced a losing streak that ended the season, falling to Cozad, 88-97, Ogallala 65-85, and Alliance 60-69 in tournament play.

The season ended with the following percentages:

Field goals, 352 out of 943—37%.

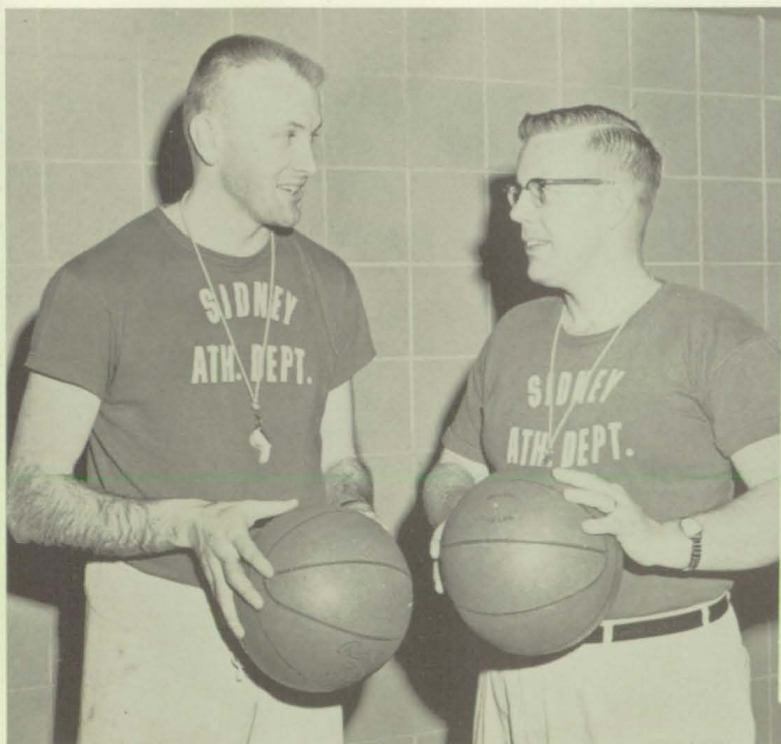

Free throws, 218 out of 447—49%.

Average points per game—Sidney 54.4, Opponents 60.0.

Ronnie Gilbreath, Sidney ace, set the following records: single game score 42 against Gothenburg; individual scoring average, 420 in 17 games, 24.7 average; and single game away, 37 against Ogallala.

Jim sinks one for the Maroons.

Closely guarded in the Gothenburg game, Ron shoots hoping to add another 2 points to the Maroon scoreboard.

A hook shot by Howie fills the auditorium with suspense during the Gering vs. Sidney game.

New to Sidney High this year, wrestling quickly became a favored sport among the students. Spectators, especially the girls, were pleasantly surprised in discovering that it was not like the wrestling they had seen on television.

Get ready,

Coach Bud Lade and Mr. Les Landmesser look over the statistics with Gary Peters, student manager.

Get set,

Go!

GEORGE HINN, Director

That Sidney High School has a band that excels in marching ability, there can be no doubt you will agree. You may recall when in 1955, Mr. George Hinn's first year at Sidney High, he took the band to Boulder to the Colorado University Band Day contest where it walked off with three SUPERIOR ratings. In 1956, we saw the Sidney "Steppers" chosen to represent Nebraska at the President's inaugural parade in Washington, D. C. Sidney couldn't be more proud.

STUDENT DIRECTOR Larry Pippitt

Taking over the responsibility of student director Larry brings the band to attention.
