The mock trial program started out slowly. There were eight members in the mock trial team last year, seven graduated, so there were many new members that started this year. Gradually, the team began to emerge but the season was nearly over by the time enough participants joined to enter the competition. Instead of regional competition, the team created an intramural competition.

Now with this years team containing only one senior the outlook for next season looks promising. The team was hard working and learned a great deal about our legal system, not bad for a bunch of legal rookies. - Mel Miller

DRUMLINE

Towards the beginning of the year, the Sidney marching band got together and began practicing for the annual parade. They had to be at school by 7am, four times a week, to practice. All the hard work really paid off because they got first place in the Oktoberfest parade, and third place in the field competition.

Marching Band

Pictured above is the Sidney High School Marching Band on the field for competition during Oktoberfest where they placed third. Leading the Sidney High School Marching Band is Drum Major Micahla Beyer. The Marching Band had to master the many movements to perform while playing songs at the same time. Above are two movements that were made during the song, Aztec Fire. They were rather difficult to do, but in the end, they were almost perfect.

Pep Band

Every year, the Sidney High School Pep band practices for the football and basketball games. They often spend the whole class period practicing pep band music. They then play this music at the games to get the team and crowd pepped up.

PRIE!

"It only matters where you finish", describes the 2007 Sidney Runnin' Raiders. As a group they performed better as the season went along. Summer training proved invaluable as several runners dedicated part of their summer to training, which helped them achieve medals in the fall. The girls were consistently led by the trio of Sr. Jenny Volkmer, Jr. Dane'ca Romick, and Fr. Kaitlyn Wells. With great numbers and solid senior leadership the season was a full success. The girls team once again earned a trip to state with a district runner-up finish. The team finished in 4th place at state. Qualifiers and medalists are on the previous page. For the boys, they had two individuals qualify for the state meet, both earning medals: Sr. Hunter Arterburn (12th) and Jr. Eric Gutierrez (10th). Several athletes gained valuable experience which will help the Runnin' Raiders in the future.

Although the girls did not come away with a winning record, they made huge strides. With the loss of only 3 seniors next year, our future looks promising. The ladies returning have learned to overcome adversity and play as a team. In addition, they played against challenging competition this year, including two class B state title contenders Grand Island Northwest and Ogallala.

Twenty-one wrestlers began the 07-08 season and Eighteen finished. The weather was a factor in all the meets, the Cozad and Gordon meets were re-scheduled. The Gordon meet was a highlight for the team as they captured the runner-up trophy. The wrestlers that competed at the Best of the West did well, and also at the Chase County meet the following weekend. They went to Valentine for the B-4 Districts and had four wrestlers qualify for State, they are: Ryan Roach, John Haun, James Matthes, and Ryan Jenson. A special thanks to our three Seniors, Nate Salazar, James Matthes, and Jeremy Hoffman. We will continue our efforts in the off season and hope to have a team that will be reckoned with in the State tournament next year.

We've got spirit. Yes we do! The girls kicked the season off with a 4 day cheerleading camp in Boulder, Colorado. There Audrey, Mindy, Allie, Nicole, and Cassie were nominated for All-Star Cheerleader. The cheerleaders supported all the teams at Sidney as much as they could. They went to all home games and tried to make it to the away games, as well as made locker tags for every sport. The cheerleaders had practice every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday, for at least two hours. At the end of their season the cheerleaders made their way to Grand Island and competed against 9 other squads and claimed 5th place.
