TRAIL
1958-59

Sidney High School
Sidney, Nebraska

Fair weather or foul, in the sun, wind and snow, the doors of our school are ever open to those who would travel along the trail to a better life.

Registration Day

The sultry days of August 25 and 26 found enrollees flocking back through those familiar doors of Sidney High to register for a place in tomorrow's world; a place, they knew, where a good education and understanding would be needed to meet the future's challenge.

Eighty-one seniors, one hundred seventeen juniors, and one hundred twenty sophomores, the girls outnumbering the boys 173 to 145, signed up for courses offered from the well planned curriculum.

Daily Life in S.H.S.

Eight o'clock bell and in you came, by pairs, in groups and alone. Some of you were asked to move out of the halls and do your visiting elsewhere, some of you sat down to your studies; some had other interests. There were always those of you who had forgotten the assignment which was due in twenty minutes and you inquired around, and others of you went to the auditorium to catch up on the latest news. A few went to the library.

The Library Hour

A school day was not complete without some time spent in the library. How well to remember the pleasant, quiet room, lined with books and information enough to instruct the most advanced student.

Moments to Cherish

. . . when we shouted and pulled our way up the hill to burn the football dummy . . . when we clapped and chanted to rock-'n-roll with the cheerleaders and pep band . . . when we expressed our appreciation for work well done . . . when our winners marched across the stage to accept their laurels . . . when we met in assembly . . . when we relaxed in fellowship . . . those were our days.

We Are Educated for Better Living

Education in our school is aimed to teach us useful skills in preparation for our life work along with an understanding and appreciation for our American way of life and its emphasis upon the honor of human dignity, liberty and truth.

To help us adjust ourselves to the technical world of today, we have placed emphasis on the learning of science, both natural and social. We did not forget however the importance of the cultural and skill building subjects or the language arts. Extracurricular choices in our curriculum offer us enrichment and the opportunity to develop our personalities.

The band salutes Superintendent O. J. Weymouth

SPECIAL DAYS

Hats Off to Mr. Weymouth

Superintendent O. J. Weymouth was given recognition for his thirty-three years of devoted service to the Sidney Public Schools on the night of October 3 when the High School Band applauded him during the halftime of the Sidney-Kimball game. In tribute, the band first formed Mr. Weymouth's initials, O. J. W., as they played the high school theme song. As the crowd and Mr. Weymouth watched, the band next outlined the dates 1925, 1926 and 1944, representing first the date of Mr. Weymouth's arrival as a teacher in Sidney, the second as the date when he became a coach, and 1944, the date when he was promoted to superintendent of the Sidney Schools.

Before presenting Mr. Weymouth to the audience, the Band formed the word, "Pidge," the nickname by which he is affectionately known to his friends, as the lively strains of "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" went out over the air.

Special Days for Student and Parent Days When Futures Are Planned

"Parent's Back to School Night" brings our parents and faculty together so that they, working together, may guide us into a better education and way of life.

College and Career Days offer us the chance to investigate the offerings of institutions of higher learning, to become acquainted with possible career opportunities, and through that knowledge to begin making plans and preparations for our future while we are still in school.

School and Faculty

In recognition of our fine school, educators from other lands visit us to study our system. Mr. Mao-Hsun Chiang, Mr. Hwei-Seng Chu, and Mr. TaKung Lin of Formosa are shown here as they are being welcomed by our administrators, Mr. Weymouth and Mr. Everingham.

*A Cherished Memory Day

TRAIL Day

The day the annuals arrived was the day we had all been waiting for. Everyone was anxious to look through it and have all his friends sign it.

These annuals brought back the memories of events that happened during the year. They were just a new book to ponder through, but in a few years they will revive the memories of classmates and events which we wish to remember. The signatures and verses written in it meant a lot to us, but they will mean a lot more in the future.

Acknowledgment

We, the staff of the 1959 TRAIL and the HI-LIFE, wish now to give our grateful thanks to our yearbook sponsor, Mrs. Cecil Holloway and our photographers, Mr. Vergal Winn and Mr. Paul Sheaman, for the many, many hours spent in working and planning with us to create this book.

We wish also that future staffs of Sidney High will continue for many years to have the honor and privilege of working under their guidance.

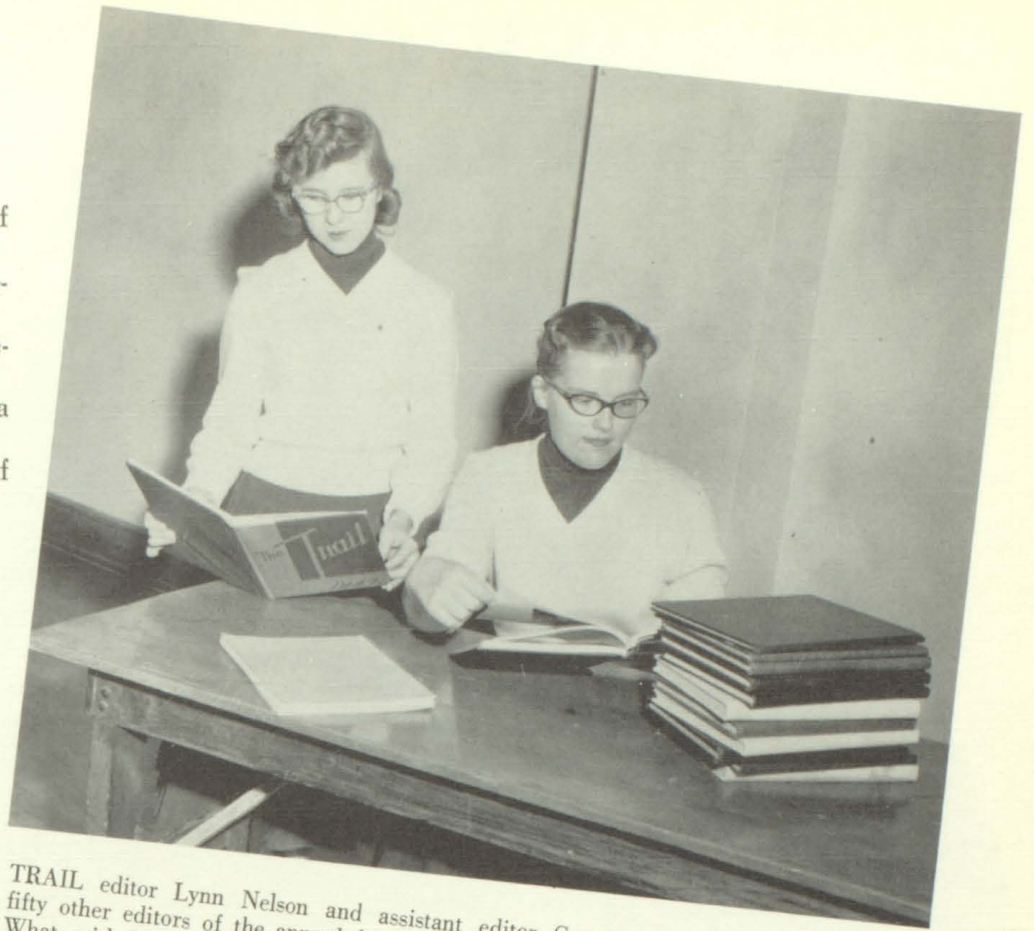

MRS. CECIL HOLLOWAY

MR. VERGAL WINN and MR. PAUL SHEAMAN

For You —

We offer this book to you, the story of your school days in Sidney High, to remember and cherish. We hope its picture-filled pages and descriptive copy will be a tangible symbol of those precious days of your school life.

TRAIL editor Lynn Nelson and assistant editor Connie Borgmann wonder if the fifty other editors of the annual found "covering the school" so much fun and work. What, with layout to plan, pictures to schedule, copy to write and deadlines to meet, how did they ever do it?

Watch the time, pass the sheets, and we'll all get done. It's "hot off the press" and the staff is busy of course assembling the HI-LIFE. Peggy Kennedy staples as Carolyn Allen, editor Rebecca Powell, Kathy Shipman and Diane Zimmerman pass.

BOARD OF EDUCATION—Standing: Mr. William Kalous, secretary; and Mr. O. J. Weymouth, superintendent of schools. Seated: Mr. Elmer Ladine, vice president; Mr. A. E. Wright, president; Mrs. B. H. Grimm, Dr. James Edwards, Dr. Hull Cook, and Dr. H. C. Q. Nelson.

We commend our Board of Education for keeping us “up to date” in the educational field by selecting good teaching staffs and providing adequate building facilities for our growing school system.

MR. O. J. WEYMOUTH

TO THE SENIORS—Congratulations upon the successful completion of your course of study as prescribed by our school. I feel that the achievement of this honor amply repays the sacrifices made by those who are interested in your welfare.

Whether you now enter upon your life work, or go to some higher institution of learning, I want you to feel free to call upon me for any further service I may be able to render.

My interest in you does not end with your graduation, but rather follows you during the coming years. Your achievements will be an inspiration to me for further service in my work.

I want also to thank you for your friendship and cooperation while in Sidney High School. I hope this friendship may continue.

To those who will be back next year I want to say we shall look forward to having you here and will do all we can to make your year worthwhile and successful.

With sincere best wishes,
Mr. Weymouth

About Our School

To all personnel who made possible this excellent portrayal of student life, may I say, Congratulations, for a job well done.

In this issue of the TRAIL our annual staff has, through the medium of pictures, depicted the life of our school. You will discover from a perusal of these pages that this high school is more than a building and classrooms. You will discover that it is a great association of students and teachers working together for one purpose, the education of youth.

We are certain that the students of this school deem it a real privilege to attend a senior high school where their educational opportunities are unlimited. We take pride in showing you through the school life portrayed in this annual that the Sidney Senior High School is one of the finest schools in the State of Nebraska.

Vice-Principal E. T. C. JONES

Board Secretary WILLIAM KALOUS

A Roll for Each

All the departments in the school work together to keep a smoothly working machine. Mr. O. J. Weymouth heads the system while Assistant Superintendent Mel Everingham and Vice-Principal E. T. C. Jones supervise its activities with the help of the guidance directors Ralph Spencer and Beth Diebler. Board secretary Bill Kalous and senior high secretary Mrs. Merton Bowser are indispensable with their service. Each of these persons has an active part and separate responsibility which is necessary to the administration of a good school.

SPECIAL SERVICES —

Doctor C. J. Cornelius Jr. is shown below giving a physical examination to athletes Gene Printz and Vet Hakes as a safeguard to better health.

Excellent library facilities under the supervision of Mrs. Marcia Carley provide source material and information to further our education.

Another aid to learning in our school are the available visual aids. Director Mr. Vergal Winn is shown caring for a film.

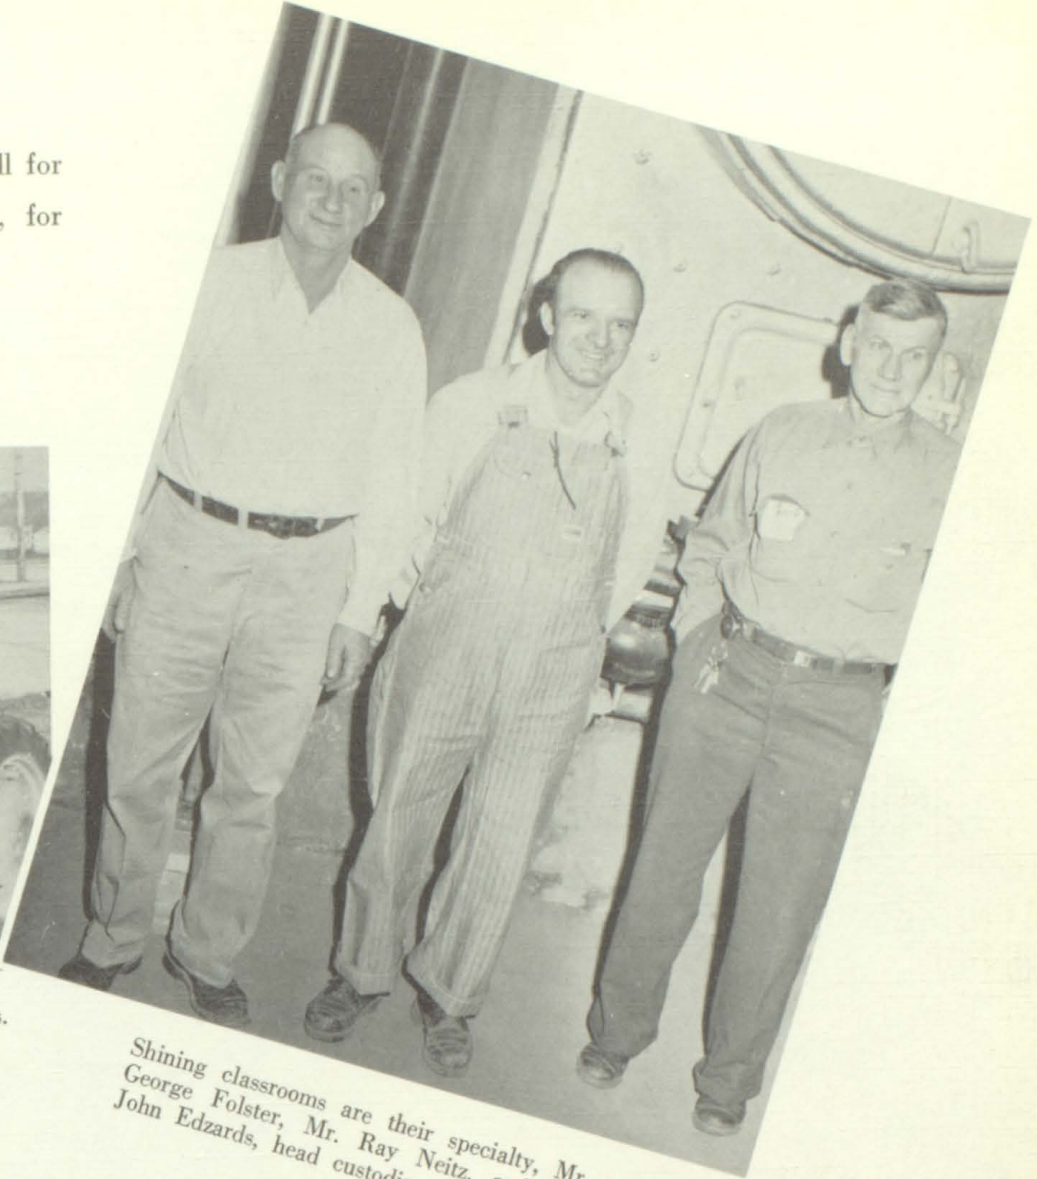

School nurse, Mrs. Laurene Simmerman works each day to insure better student health while Mrs. Marjorie Pals, speech therapist, works to correct faulty speech.

We want to say "thank you" to you all for the many extras done for our welfare, for your cheerfulness and patience.

Winter snows give extra work to Mr. Bill Watts.

Shining classrooms are their specialty, Mr. George Folster, Mr. Ray Neitz, and Mr. John Edzards, head custodian.

Their food may add inches to our waists but how good it is. Mrs. Whitmire, Mrs. Moody, Mrs. Stueve, Mrs. Osborn, Mrs. Cullins, and Mrs. O'Connor pose in their spotless kitchen with Board president A. E Wright and Junior High principal T. R. Tillotson.

And this I believe: that the free, exploring mind of the individual human is the most valuable thing in the world. And this I would fight for: the freedom of the mind to take any direction it wishes . . . And this I must fight against: any idea, religion, or government which limits or destroys the individual. This is what I am and what I am about. I can understand why a system built on a pattern must try to destroy the free mind, for this is one thing which can by inspection destroy such a system. Surely I can understand this, and I hate it and I will fight against it to preserve the one thing that separates us from the uncreative beasts. If the glory can be killed, we are lost.

Memories Are Made of This —

Some "zaney" pep rallies.

Meetings—class and otherwise.

From Our Point of View — the Seniors

Our class of '59 has had exciting, stimulating, challenging, and educational experiences these past four years within Sidney High School. We have grown into adults who after graduation will go into the world to make our own lives.

Perhaps Sidney High has not made scholars out of each and every one of us for it is not the purpose of education to mold all into scholars, but into better citizens. Our school has however given every individual one of us an opportunity to express himself and develop. It has molded our minds and formed our skills to help us in the future we are looking forward to.

We leave as testimony our feelings toward our school in the words of our spokesmen:

Sidney High has indeed been good to me. It has been patient with me while I grew more mature throughout the three years I have attended it. It has never expected too much of me, yet enough that I felt there was always a challenge to achieve higher goals. During the course of my three year stay, it has, with the aid of the faculty and the student body, developed my personality and my character for better. It has taught me to cope with my problems and to better understand the problems of others. It has enriched my life through contacts with the faculty and fellow students. For these and other reasons far too numerous to mention here, I am truly grateful to Sidney High.

—HOWARD MALEY

In my years at Sidney High, I have learned to appreciate my studies and the values of self-government.

—TOM HAUGAN

In my years as a student, I realized as each year was behind me, the importance of my education. The teachers have always striven to help me set higher goals and reach them. They have been responsible for my new outlook on life and education.

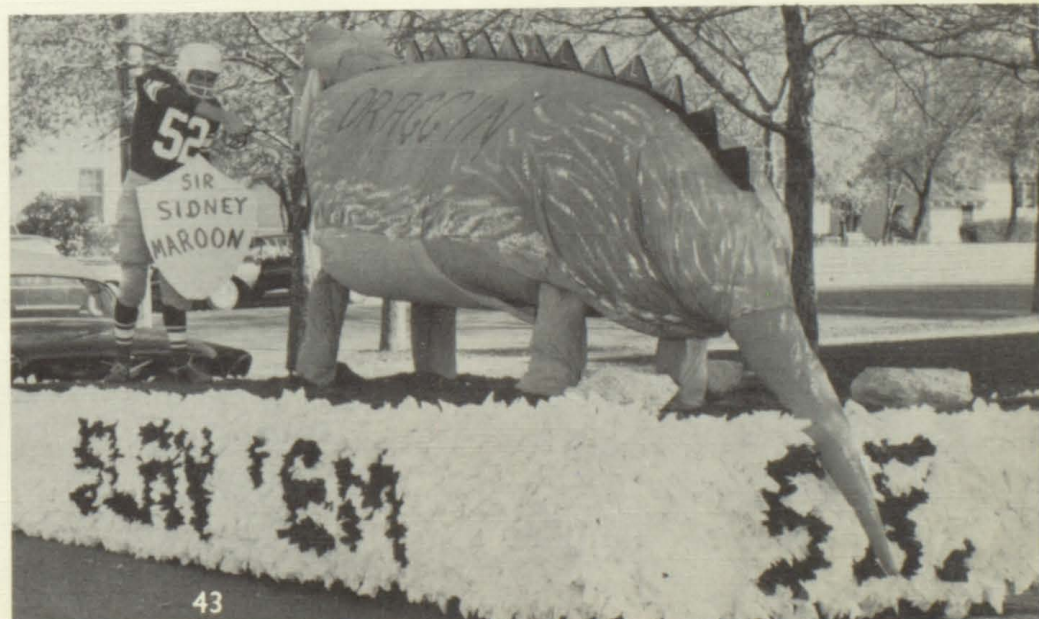

—GRETCHEN THOMPSON

I feel that I have received the best education possible from this high school, and I am proud to say that I graduated from it.

—SHARON CHRISTENSEN

Sidney High School was one of the best things that ever happened to me. It has taught me to respect other people and to realize that the world would be rough to live in without friends and people to help in time of need. I have learned to help others and found out that teachers are not a bad bunch.

—JIM WHITE

The Juniors

The juniors began a busy year by electing Connie Borgmann, Terry Gilliland; Jerry Misegadis, Sylvia Philips, and Marianne Wilson to the Unicameral Legislature of Sidney High.

Selling candy bars, running the concession stand to raise money for the important junior-senior banquet and prom, and presenting a class play was work, but by the time May came, what had seemed work suddenly became a memory of fun.

The Sophomores

When election time rolled around Sharon Adams, Albert Hill, Stephen Hinrichs, Karen Pelster, and Jean Wolstenholm won over their opponents for seats in the National House of Representatives as Gary Schmitt, Edward Bowman, Harlan Pals and Larry Pfeil assumed leadership of the Sophomore State.

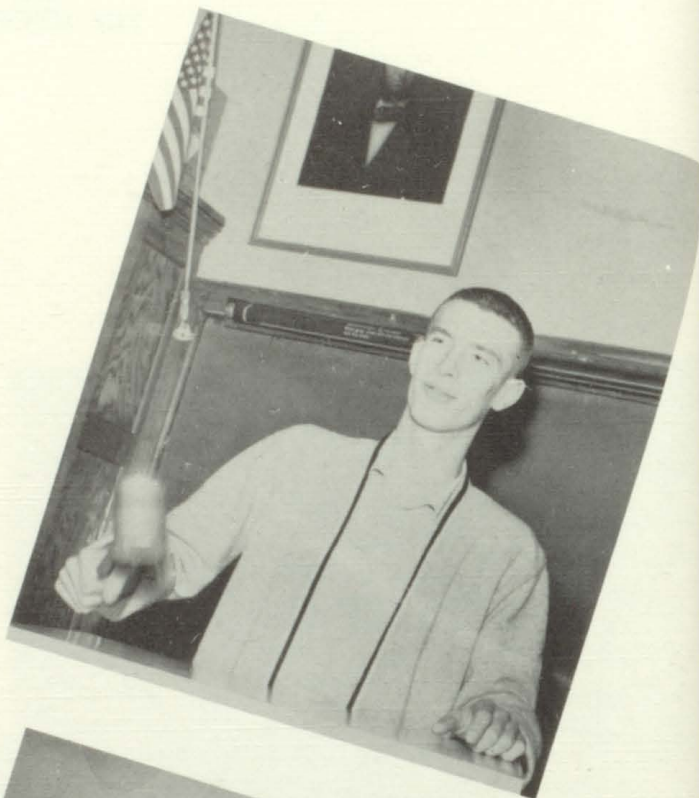

Doing much more than call meetings together, Governor Schmitt with the help of committees and advice of sponsors, Miss Nielsen and Mr. Lewis, designed an attractive float entry in the Homecoming Parade.

Cute, isn't it?

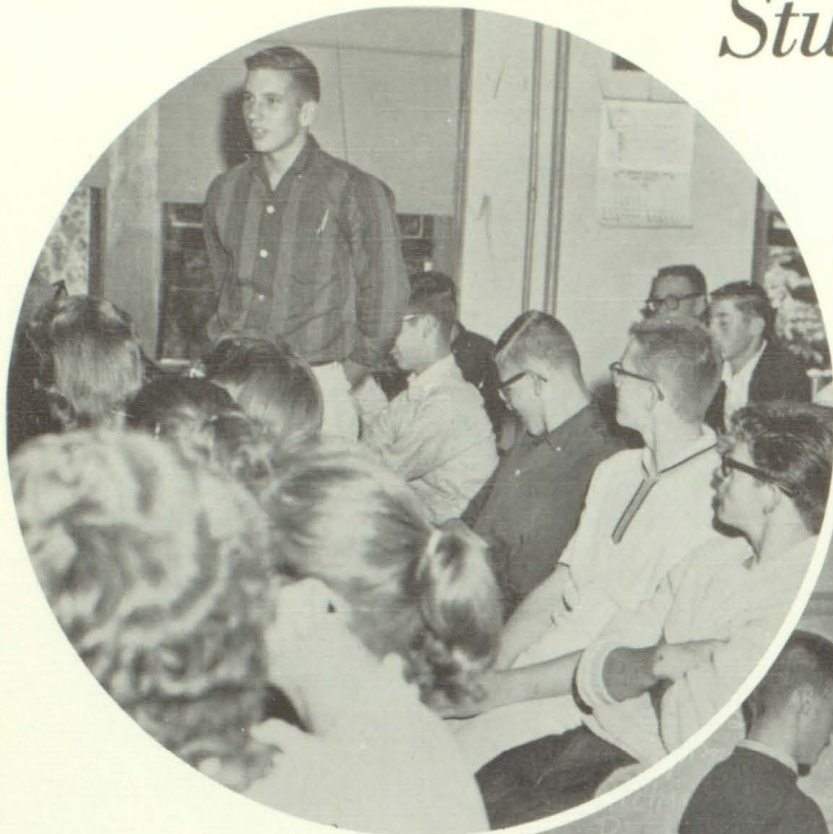

A government of the students and for the students, wisely directed, will not fail.

The Cabinet of President Mel Everingham has as its object the promotion of better student-teacher relationships. It attempts to promote and plan interschool activities. The Cabinet's special project for the year was that of sponsoring an exchange student for next year.

Student Government

Student government begins with the primaries in the fall which arouse interest for elections. Calvin Cutright is here campaigning.

When success comes to the few they are sworn into offices both in the state and national governments.

Joe Haugan, senior, takes his oath of office as governor.

Mr. Sheaman administers the oath of office to newly elected governor of the Junior State, Gordon Printz.

Strives to Make the "Best Better"

The House rises to its feet as Legislator Ronnie Zalesky escorts President Mel Everingham and Senator Dale Black from the installation services.

"To make the best better and develop a positive attitude toward citizenship and scholarship" became the guiding motto of student government activity for 1959 when President Mel Everingham established the year's objective on the day of installation.

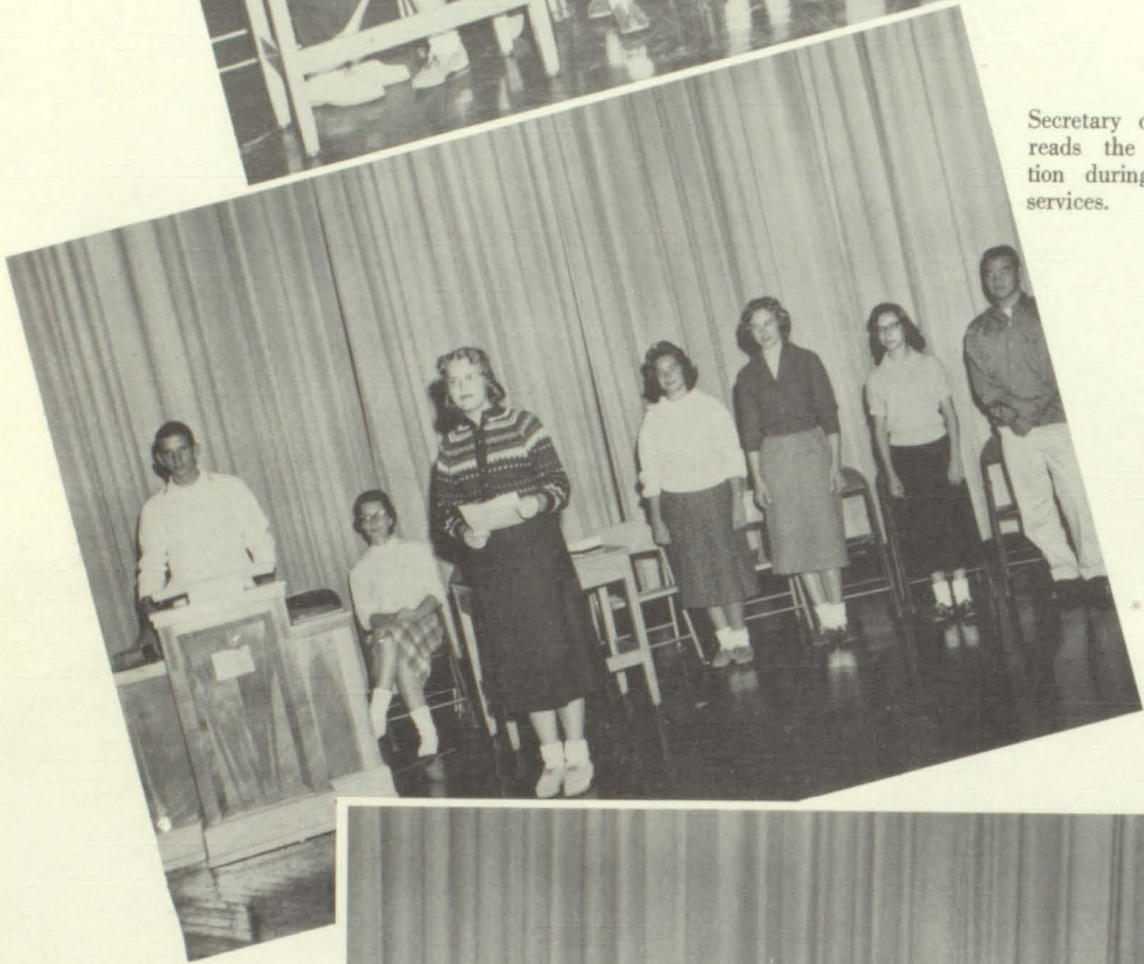

Inspired by the first meeting, the President's Cabinet initiated a move to bring about an exchange of students with a foreign country for the summer of 1960. The student body raised the necessary seven hundred dollars expense money for the exchange by selling one dollar shares in the program.

The House of Representatives worked with the recreational committee of the Sidney City Improvement Project to draw up plans for a recreational building.

County Government Day

County Government representatives met with several Cheyenne County officers in the courtroom shortly before the program of the day got underway to have this picture taken. Standing in the back is county commissioner, Joe Ruttner; attorney Frank Balderson and commissioner Cecil Hunt. On the left in the middle row is George Fleming, county commissioner and student officers Dick Yonekura, judge; Karin Felt, treasurer; Gordon Printz, sheriff and Mike Fisher, commissioner. Standing in the front row are Ronnie Zalesky, commissioner; Virginia Berry, clerk; Marlene Meyer, superintendent of schools; Kathy Shipman, clerk of the district court; Cheyenne County clerk of the district court, Mrs. Ruby Spindler; Susan Cook, assessor; Mrs. Hart, county welfare agent and Miss Edith Oldershaw, county superintendent of schools. Not pictured are representatives Kenneth Noteboom, attorney, Mike Wright, welfare agent and J. L. Whitmire, commissioner.

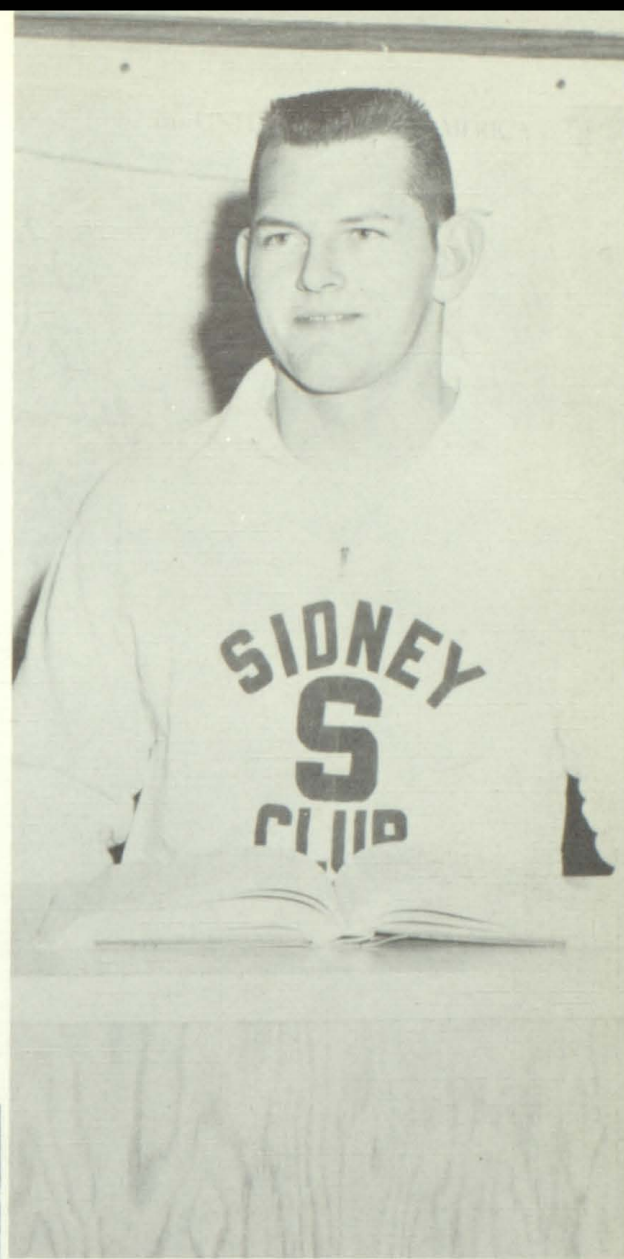

Successful junior candidates elected by their classmates as County Government Day officials marched off Wednesday morning, January 14 to the county courthouse to learn about government as they worked with the county officials.

Sponsors of County Government Day, Mr. William Harris and Mr. Paul Sheaman.

Our School's Representatives

Gordon Printz, representative to the 1959 Boys' State, was first selected by the high school faculty along with other eligible nominees. The candidates' names were then submitted to the Rotary Club for final selection of the representative candidate. Gordon was selected to represent his school at Boys' State.

Sharon Bauman

Sharon Bauman, A.F.S. representative to Germany last summer, was the first student from Sidney High to go abroad as a foreign exchange student.

So that more students may have the opportunity to go, the students of Sidney High School have begun a fund raising plan through which funds may be raised to sponsor another exchange student to Sidney to enable Sidney to send another student abroad. The $650 Club grants membership to all who contribute the one dollar dues to sponsor the exchange.

The Homecoming Story

Jerilynn George and Howard Maley were crowned as queen and king of Sidney High's Homecoming on the starlight night of October 17 before a large crowd. Jeri marched with queen candidates Sharon Bauman and Bonnie Brown, attended by little Mark Thurston, across the gridiron to claim her crown and captain's kiss as the band stood at attention. Howard was so honored at the dance which followed the game when Queen Jeri placed the king's crown upon his head.

As early as two thirty that afternoon the fun began when the high school band set the beat for the parade to get into motion. First to follow the band as it marched toward town were the three class floats, each decorated after a story book theme. Class floats were followed by the queen candidates and cheerleaders, after which came a float bearing the football boys.

Marching halted in front of the courthouse and the rally began. Queen candidate Bonnie Brown presented junior Gordon Printz with the prize-winning float plaque as the juniors cheered and Jerry Felt gave the Sidney Maroon Gridders their first mascot, an alligator. Following pep talks by Mayor Ferris Preble, Coach Buddy Lade, Athletic Director Tom Jones, Mr. Carl Crouse, and others, the rally disbanded to await the game.

Sidney was defeated on the field, but Homecoming still remained the big event of the season.

It's Christmas

Pine-scented hallways, tinsel and laughter, expectancy and eagerness — all these were a part of those days.

The Cotillion on Saturday night, December 20, where we danced under a sky of silver and blue to the music of Dave Richardson and his band led us up a "stairway to the stars."

The Cotillion

A "Stairway to the Stars" was the theme of the Christmas Cotillion, the senior's mid-season semi-formal ball held in the beautifully decorated high school auditorium.

Bonnie Brown and Calvin Cutright were crowned queen and king of the dance with Bonnie Glassburn, Joanne Baker, Vet Hakes and Jerry Felt in attendance.

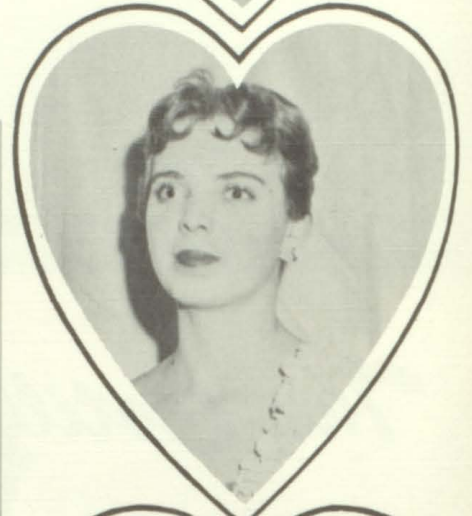

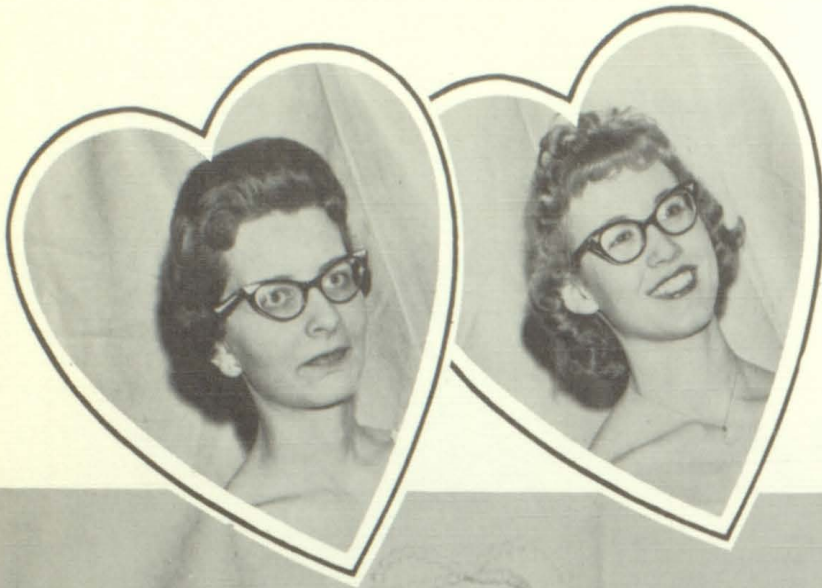

The royal group reigned from a throne atop a stairway to the stars.

Chorus Presents Folk Song Operetta

"Down In the Valley" by Kurt Weill and Arnold Sungaard was presented by the Chorus, with Mr. William Fankhouser directing, March 20.

The operetta, based on the title song, uses many of the mountain folk songs in weaving its story of the life of Jennie Parsons and Brack Weaver; their romance and tragedy.

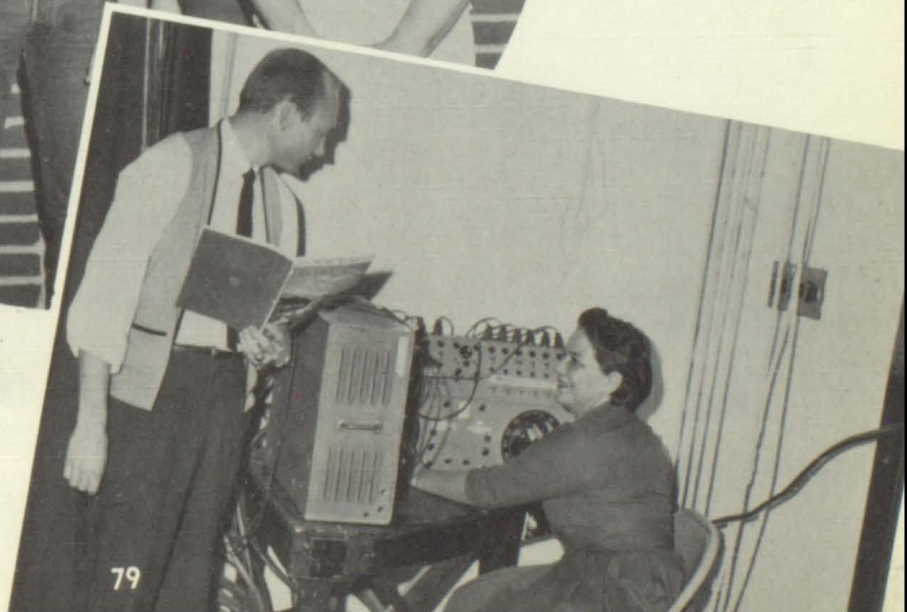

It differs from other operettas in that all scene changes are made during stage blackouts and the properties and scenery used leave much for audience imagination and participation.

Supporting roles were taken by Duane Farmer as Preacher and Leader; Jerry Misedagdis as Thomas Bouché; Jim Bruenger as Mr. Parsons and Conrad Friede as Guard. Not pictured: Gene Morris as Peters.

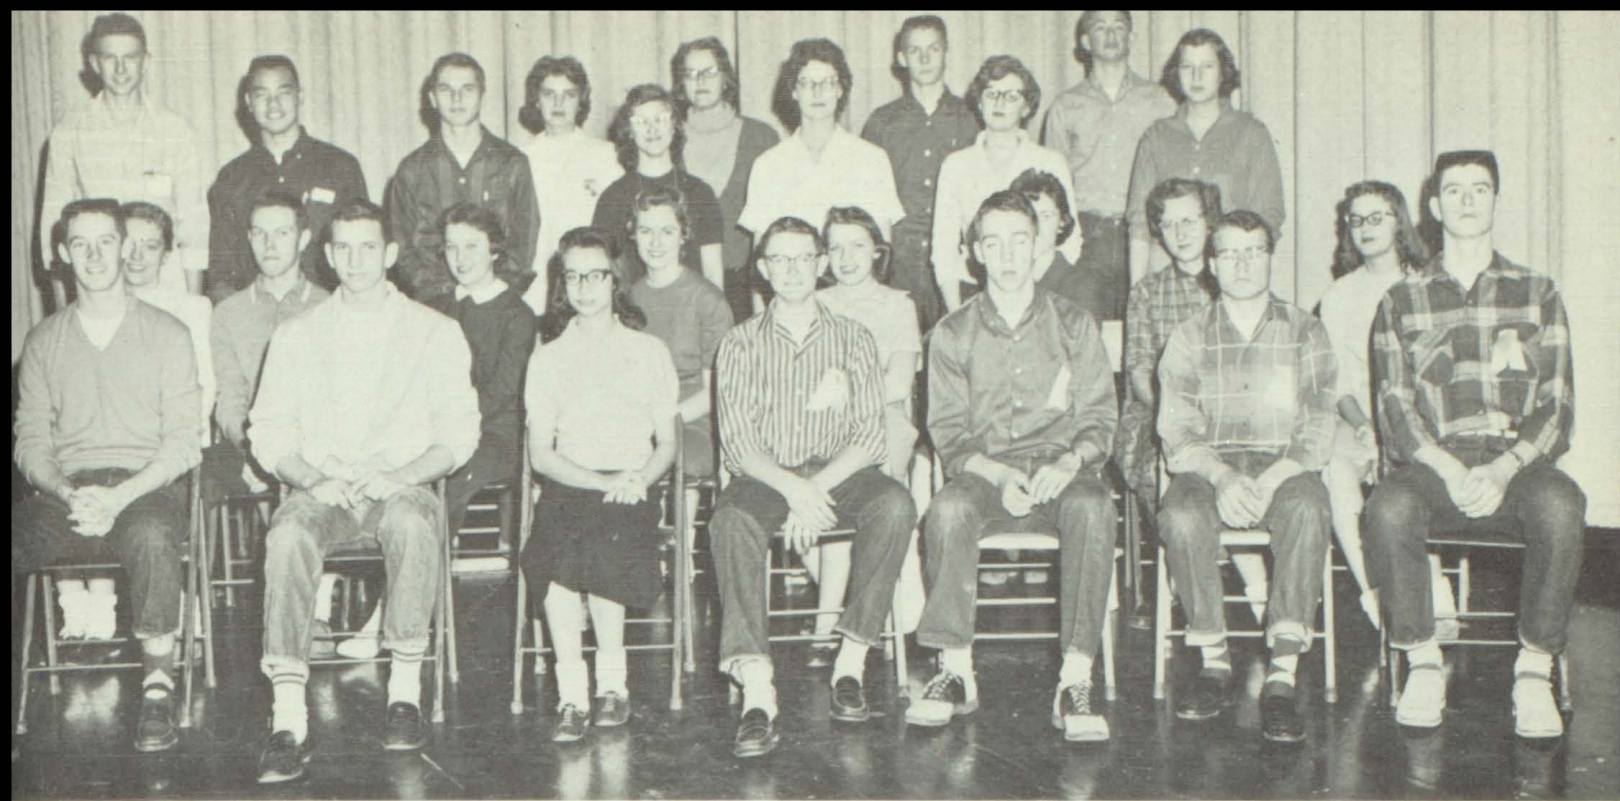

Lighting and set designs were done by Mr. Jim Cantrell, art instructor, and Mrs. E. J. Madsen.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society was organized in Sidney High just five years ago to give recognition to students on a basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. A growth from eleven active members in 1955 to thirty-one in 1959 is indicative of its influence.

The O. J. Weymouth Chapter of F.T.A.

You can't pull good teachers out of a hat. Their training begins early with careful planning. F.T.A. focuses the spotlight of student attention upon the teaching profession as ever increasing numbers become members.

To help the Sidney Chapter better understand what teaching means, the group visited Chadron State Teacher's College where experts reviewed how a teacher makes preparation for his career. Later classrooms in the Sidney elementary schools were visited so that a better understanding of the duties and importance of the teacher in a free society might be had.

As experienced staff members, the group will be ready to work on the 1960 publications staffs. In addition to their training as journalists who have maintained good grade averages in all their subjects, these members have been trained as photographers.

As special projects, the group sponsored the popularity contest and the March of Dimes Talent Show, giving the proceeds to the March of Dimes drive.

The Football Story

Forty-one would-be-football heroes checked in for practice the day of August 25 as Head Coach Buddy Lade began work on the opening game with Lincoln Northeast, scheduled as a home game on September 12.

Six sophomores, Phil Cronk, Harlan Pals, Danny Stovall, Albert Hill, Phillip Ham and Kent Miller, and one new student, Tony Rock, were added to last year's line up.

Coached by Mr. Lade with the assistance of Line Coach James Godfrey and Reserve Coach Lavern Kosta, the varsity boys netted four wins out of their nine game schedule, while the reserve team won four out of seven.

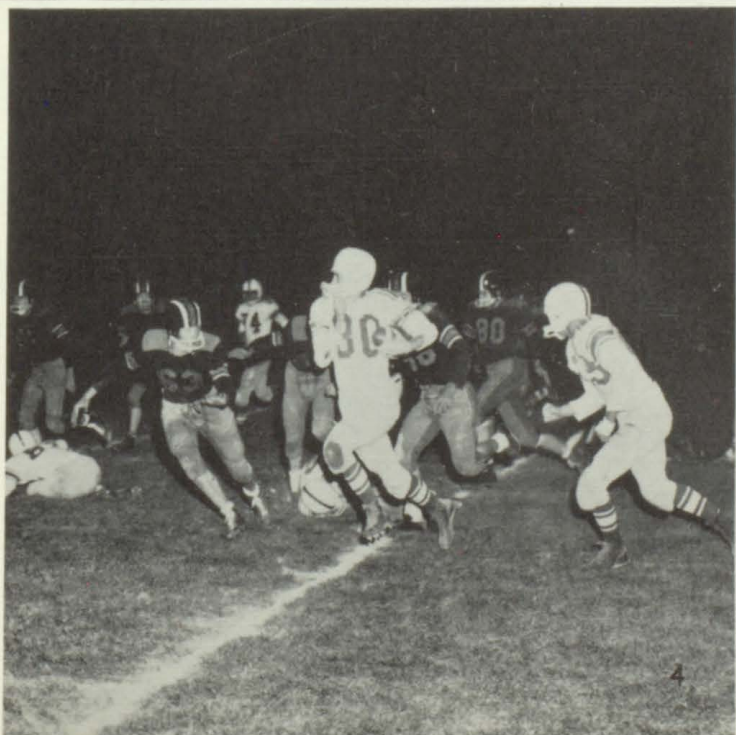

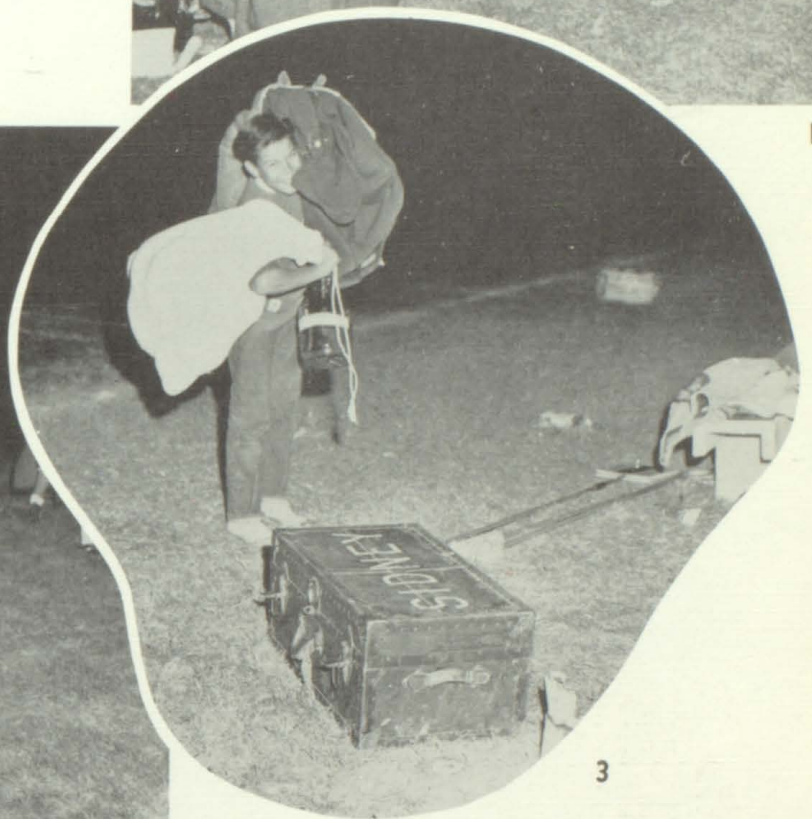

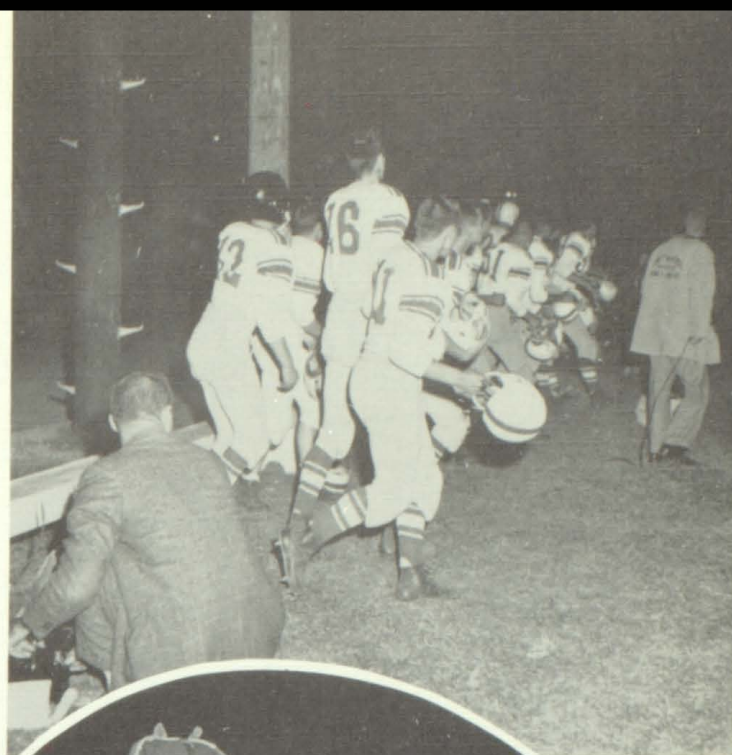

Summing it up: all in all the season was good with attitudes right for the best type of sportsmanship. Coach Lade expressed it when he said: "A fine bunch of kids to work with, cooperative and hard working. Perhaps one of the best all-around teams Sidney High School has had."

And go for those touchdowns.

1. A thrilling play brings everyone to their feet. It may be a touchdown.
2. Win or lose, the game must end.
3. Left with the "Lurch." Oh, well, what are student managers good for? Larry's "good."
4. We want a touchdown!
5. Stop 'em, Sidney!
