1: Who is that taking a picture?
Caylen Shiffermiller is using her camera skills that she has learned in Journalism

2: Carrying Kristin Schuessler around (L-R) is Megan Wilson, Brianna Marron, and Ashley Wells

3: Obviously there isn't anything better to do than make a class pyramid. From bottom (L-R) is Megan Wilson, Zach Goodwin, Allysa Shipman, and Ashley Wells, Second Row: Caylen Shiffermiller, and Kristin Schuessler, and to top it off is Brianna Marron

CAPTURED IN THE YEARBOOK

Words for Thought

4: There's our wonderful teacher, Mrs. Lindstrom. This is her first year, looks like it's going well

6: Here we have Megan Wilson twirling her hair trying to think of what to write

8: After a snowball fight we all huddle up by a heater to warm up. (L-R) is Luke Olsen, Caylen Shiffermiller, Jordan Robertson, Leif Schlieker, Cassi Arraj, and Kelley Kopetzky

5: AJ Mikkelson is hard at work, or, so that's what he says

7: Here's Brianna Marron cropping a picture

9: Taking a break from all their hard work is (L-R) Kristin Schuessler, Brianna Marron, Mrs. Lindstrom, Allysa Shipman, and Ashley Wells

Words for Thought

1: Smile big for the camera ladies. (L-R) is Megan Wilson, Kristin Schuessler, and Caylen Shiffermiller

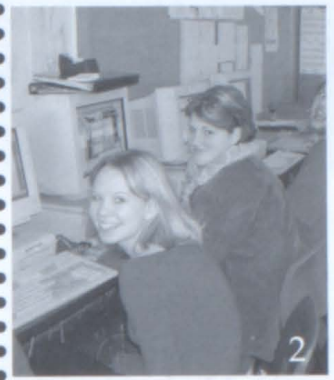

3: Pretending to be busy is Jordan Robertson

5: Here we have Cristina Sakis, who is also the head of the newspaper

2: Working hard at the computer is Cassie Person and Amanda Bowlds

4: "Precisely!" Zach Goodwin commented

6: Semester joiners are (L-R) Megan Homolka and Lacy Wilson

Red, Green, and Yellow a system that works!

They have a system that really works. The system is a stoplight. They have the colors red, green, and yellow. When you have your name on the red light it means you can not wear your hat during class. When you have your name on the yellow light it means that you may wear your hat during an activity. Then last but not least, when you have your name on the green light it means that you may wear your hat the whole day in class.

ENGLISH CLUB

englishmomentsbudiunglishshmalinglishenglishinotherrwords

1. Brendan Pearson and Brianna Marron love being in English Club together
2. Mike Deines and Beth Heinecke realize their sole purpose in life is to be in English Club
3. Mrs. Holechek shows her multiple personalities during English Club

THE ULTIMATE ENGLISH CLUB MEMORY (From Rosa Beyer): One night we were coming home from an English Club trip and the driver, Mr. Fisher, turned onto the wrong side of the road and his wife started yelling, "What are you doing?!" So Mr Fisher, attempted to drive to the correct side of the road by driving over the median. Most people were sleeping, but were awoken by Fisher's crazy driving skills. At least he was a better English Club sponsor than a driver . . .

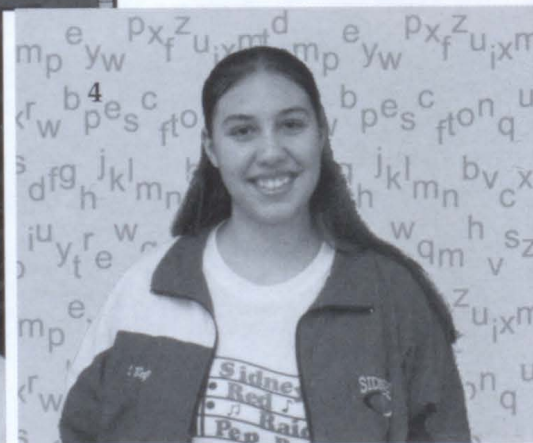

FAVORITE ENGLISH CLUB MEMORIES

- "NO SHODDY WORK" Mr. Fisher
- "English Club is all just a mo and a half." Raycheal Steining
- "I thoroughly enjoyed our obsession with bake sales." Rosa Beyer
- "I liked eating at Mr. Fisher's house my junior year; his wife makes good food. I also enjoyed discovering that bookstores sell Jesus and Albert Einstein action figures." Beth Heinecke
- "When I visited the Tattered Cover Bookstore in Denver and scooped up my guitar scale book for $5.95," Brendan Pearson
- "That one time when me and he and I and then we and oh, that was a great time." Brianna Marron

3. Raycheal Steining attempts deep thought in English Club, hmm?!
4. Confucius say English Club rocks, and Rosa Beyer obviously agrees
6. Katillia Moench dances because she's in English Club

Are Sports Important In High School?

"Sports aren't important but Art is very important"
- Marshall Steininger

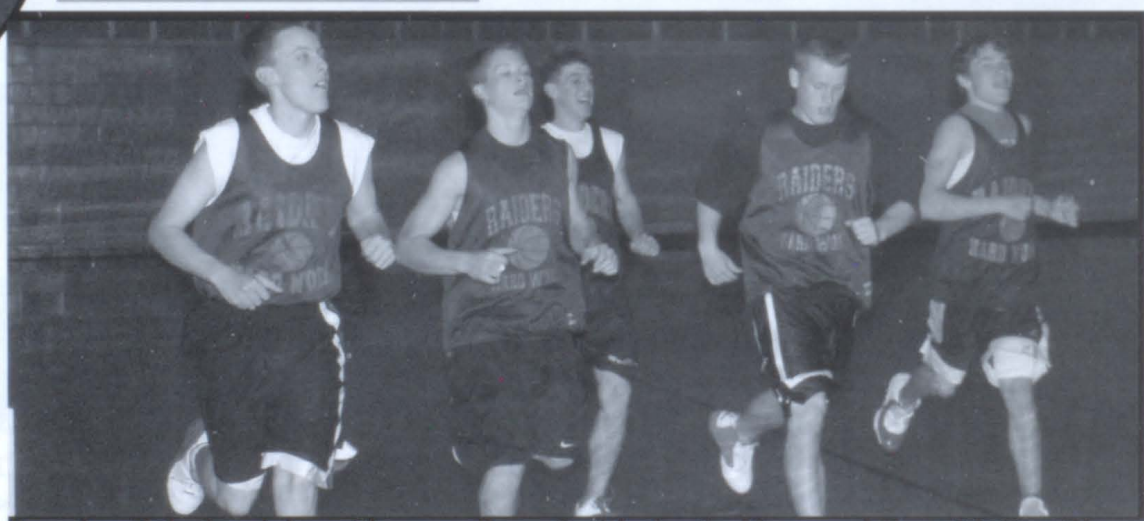

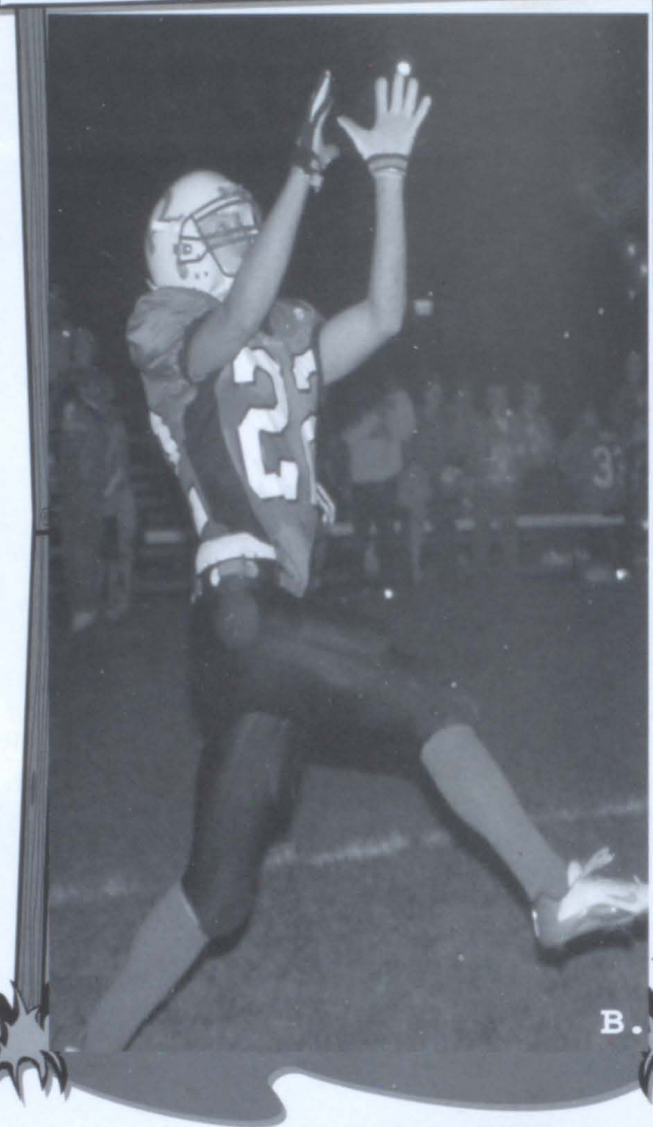

"In the greater scheme of things, organized sports have nothing to do with the learning process and it's ridiculous that they are associated with school at all"
- Zachariah Goodwin

"Sports are good but over-rated"

Adam,
 What an amazing person you've already become and what a gift you've been to us! You make us so proud, you make us grateful, you make us laugh, and you'll make us miss you. But that's only because we love you. Your favorite verse: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me," guarantees me a promising future. Remember it always!
 Love,
 Mom and Dad

Cassie,
 Five pounds, six ounces, so very small. It seems like yesterday we brought you home. As I sit here writing this, the memories flood me: your first steps, first words, pulling your teeth, and three sisters fighting. Cassie, I cannot express how very proud I am of you. You have accomplished so much. Your decisions have been wise. You are a strong lady, and extremely bright. I know in my heart you will go far. You will accomplish your dreams. The house will feel empty, but I will be thinking of you each and every day. God bless you, my Cassie! I love you with all my heart.
 Love,
 Mom

Nittney,
 We are so proud of you! Our little girl has grown into a beautiful young woman. We have learned so much from you, and hopefully you from us. Always keep your integrity and don't let anyone or anything compromise it.
 Love ya,
 Mom, Dad, and Adam

Dear Christina,
 You have been a pleasure to raise. Your beautiful personality is a treasure that deserves much praise. Don't ever change your caring ways. We love you with all our might, and look forward to sharing your future, which we're sure will be bright. We will miss you very much. Our love and blessings will always be with you.
 Dad and Mommy
 Christina, best of luck; I will miss you the most!
 Love ya,
 Eleni
 Christina, college will be lots of fun; look forward to it.
 Love,
 Nick

Casi,
 You are a blessing from God. You bring such joy and adventure to life. You're unique and a wonderful person. You have gone through a lot but you still keep believing. Don't let anyone take that spirit away. Keep your eyes on God, for He will make your dreams come true.
 Love,
 Mom and Dad

Derek,
 You are an amazing young man, and we are truly blessed to have you as our son. You have certainly added more zest to our lives! Set your goals high, and never give up on your dreams. We are proud of you and will always be here for you.
 Love you,
 Mom, Dad, and Melanie

Congratulations Anneka! We are very proud of you. You are very creative and adventuresome. We pray you will use the abilities God has given you to bring glory to him. Love, Mom and Dad

Ericka, Watching you become the young woman you are has filled us with pride and joy. The integrity, intelligence, and perseverance you have exhibited are qualities that all should aspire to. Your positive attitude and kind heart will serve you well through your journey in life. Wherever you go and whatever you do, let God be your guide. Live life passionately! All our love, Mom & Dad

Jess, You are a delight and joy to have in our lives. Continue to believe in yourself and you will go far in life. Love you, Mom, Dad, Derek, and Jeffery

Heidi, From the first moment we held you, our hearts were filled with pride and joy. Your sense of humor, creativity, determination, and your love for others has made you become the young beautiful woman you are today. As your walk in life continues, we pray that your faith will remain strong and guide you to reach for the goals you have set for yourself. All our love, Mom, Dad, and Riley

Kelsey, You came into this world fighting for life, and you taught us that all things were possible and miracles do come true. You were diagnosed with Perthes and wore leg braces; you taught us determination is something no one can take from you and that only you get to decide what "can't" be done. You saw and talked with angels and imaginary playmates and taught us all things are possible as long as you believe. You smile, and fill our lives with pride and joy. Remember we love you "A bushel and a peck and a hug around the neck." Dad, Mom, Zach, and Megan

Ken, Everyday is a new beginning. Follow your path. Live your dream, challenge your fears, and most of all DO what you love. We are very proud of the person you are! Be happy! Love, Mom and Dad

Lacey and Ashley,
 Thank you for filling our lives with so much love, joy, pride, and gratitude. You have made it to the end of one journey. Now as you start a new, always remember that no matter what roads you decide to travel along the way, we will always be right behind you with love, support, and encouragement. It will be hard to let go, but we look forward to that journey ahead! "Follow your dreams for they will always lead you in the right direction."

We love you so much,
 Mom and Dad

Chelsea,
 What a joy you have always been to us! Our bright ray of sunshine. We can't believe it's already time for you to graduate. Hold fast to your faith and let God lead you in everything—big or small. We're so proud of you, Chels, and of the young woman you've become—both inside and out. You will be missed more than you'll ever know.

We love you,
 Dad, Mom, and Christie

Dan,
 Same smile . . . same enthusiasm . . . same heart!
 Your strength of character and dedication to tasks will allow you success at whatever you choose. God will bless your path. Dad loves you.

Love,
 Dad, Mom, Lee, Carter, and well-known friends

Justin,
 In everything you endeavored, you did it with all your heart and might. You never cease to amaze us. Congratulations on all your accomplishments. Your determination will be a key to your future success. As always, we believe in you.

Love,
 Dad, Mom, Kyle, and Alyssa

Melissa,
 We just want you to know how proud we are and how very much we love you. Work hard and follow your dreams, and you can do whatever you want. Good luck in college and whatever else you choose to do in the years to come.

We love you,
 Dad, Mom, Kim, Jacob, Jess, Mike, and Derek

Ray-Chel,
 We love you and are so proud of you—our "baby." All the best to you as you take over your life!

Hugs and love,
 Mom, Dad, Melissa, and Sarah

It's Donut Day, Daddy!! That phrase will ring in my ears forever. You so looked forward to Friday when we would go to the Daylight Donut shop in Kearney, just the two of us. But as time went on, you grew up from that cute happy little girl into a bright and beautiful young woman. What happened to the time? It seems like only a couple years ago your elementary teachers were telling us pretty much the same thing. "Mr. and Mrs. Maddox, Amber is doing very well in her subjects." Her grades are just fine; however, there is one little problem. She has received another checkmark in 'excessive talking.'" This was no surprise to us. We just explained that you had a lot to say. After a while you just had an automatic checkmark in that square. Christmas programs, skinned knees, and searching for new ways to enjoy M&Ms, these are just a few highlights of your first journey in life. Well Amber, you are about to embark on a new journey into adulthood and the real world. This journey is going to take you places and allow you to do things that you only dreamed about. With your determination and intelligence, your mom and I know you will never settle for second best. You have never settled before, and you will never change. The foundation that Mom, myself, and the rest of your family had helped you build is solid. We all know you will do just fine. You may fall from time to time, but none of us will let you hit the ground hard. You know that even though you have grown up, you will always be able to come home.

We love you and are very, very proud of you,

Mom and Dad

Brianna,

From the day you were born, I knew you would be strong and would have to battle through life. You still never cease to amaze me with your talent, ambition, and desire for life. Even though we've been through rough times, the words "I love you" are always tucked within.

Thank you for what you have brought my life. Never take less than what you deserve, and thank you for being that "special" daughter with that unique attitude.

Love, Mom

Brianna,

I'm going to keep this simple and sincere by saying congratulations to you for what a very beautiful, intelligent, and capable person you have become, despite all you have endured and will continue to. Hold on to the parts of yourself that are true and embrace whatever your future holds with them.

Love, Shane

Chris,

You have always known a day like this would come, when you would begin to build a life of your own. For the person you are and for the person you will become, we wish you the best as you reach for the stars. Together we have come a long way in eighteen years.

Love always,
Mom and Dad

To Lee Pickett, my one and only son, I am so proud of the way you have grown and matured throughout the years. You have brought so much love and happiness to my life. I will carry it with me forever. Lee, with your wonderful personality and great outlook on life, you will go a long way.

Love always, Mom

Chelsey,

We are all so very proud of you. No matter what you choose your life to be, we wish you happiness and success. We love you "Sassy Sue!"

Love: Dad, Mom, Nate, Jen, Eric, Marcy, Jade, and Brody

I love you, Victoria because you shall be victorious in all that you choose to achieve. I am so proud of you—you have accomplished so much. You're such a charming, witty, respectful, and classy young lady. You are an amazing person; I love you so much!

Tiffany Ann Franzen,
We know you will go far! We're proud of you.
Mom and Dad, Adam and Tina

David,
You have made us very proud of you. Keep your kind heart and good sense of humor, and you will go far. We know you will achieve whatever you set out to do.
Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Jason,
On June 23, 1986, God blessed us with a beautiful baby boy. At that time, we thought of all the years ahead of us watching you grow and mature into a young man. Now you are that young man, with a bright future ahead of you. Jason, always remember to just be yourself and to always follow your dreams. We are very proud of you.
Love, Dad, Mom, and Tyler

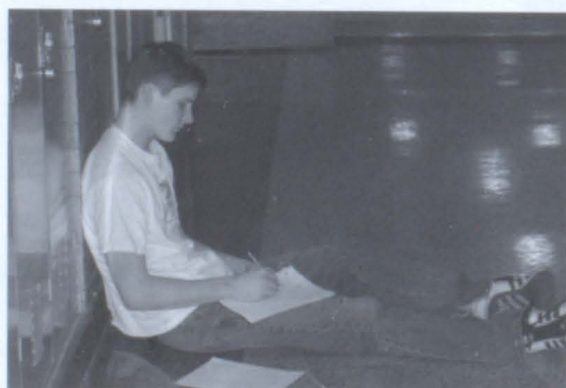

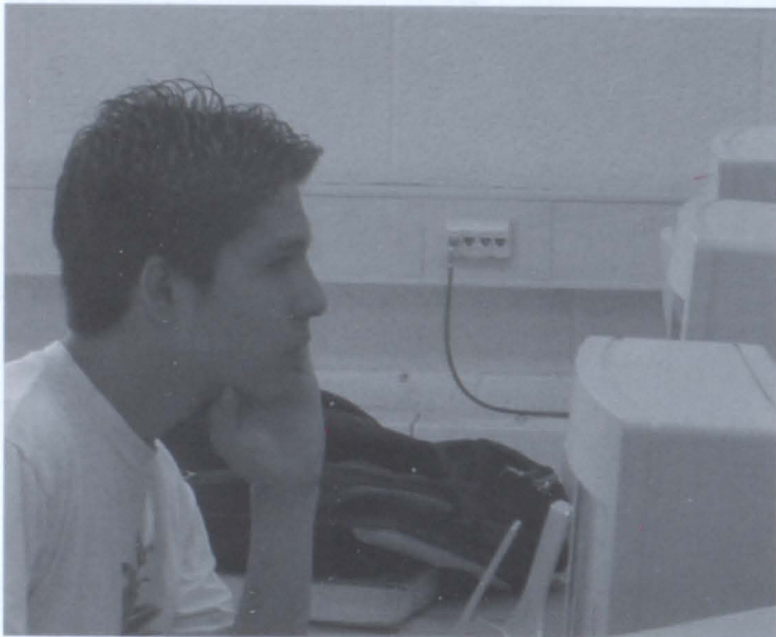

Trista,
You've grown from an innocent little girl into a beautiful young lady full of love, laughter, and compassion. As you begin the next phase of life, remember that we're supporting your journey. It won't be easy. There will be obstacles. Hold onto your dreams and persevere to achieve greatness. We love you and we're proud of you. We're wishing you the best life has to offer.
Congratulations, Mom, Dad, and Sean

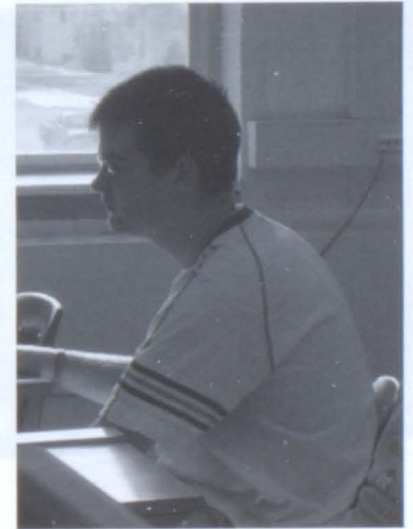

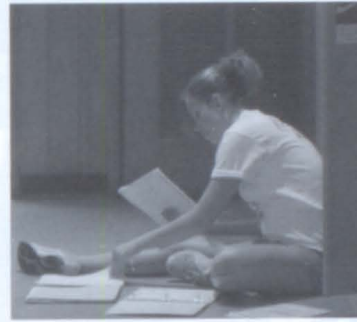

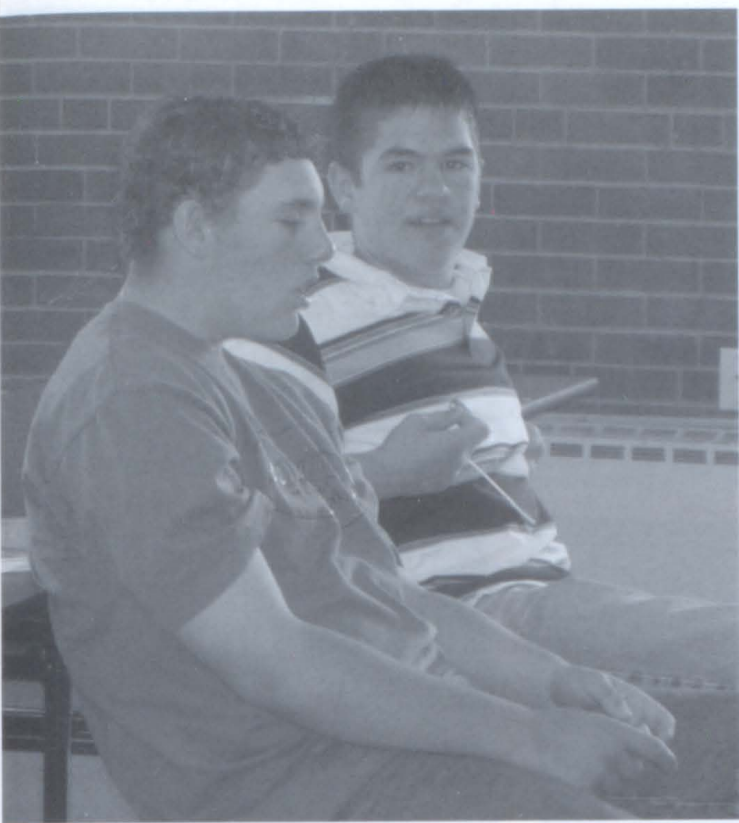

Whitni,
We are all very proud of what a wonderful person you are. You have filled our lives with many happy memories. We will miss you, but we know that you are ready for what the world has to offer. Your personality and determination will take you to great places. God Bless you!
Love, Mom, Dad, Ryan, and Brennan

SHS Class of 2005:

The City of Sidney congratulates the graduating seniors on your many fine accomplishments during your high school career. You now face a journey that will take you on the road to your future life. We know that Sidney Public Schools prepared you to meet those challenges along the way and embrace opportunities that come along.

A community's greatest asset is its youth and the talents you bring to our future. We know many of you will venture on to further your education, nurture your skills through additional training, enter the military or the work force. Many of you may leave Sidney to begin those career paths.

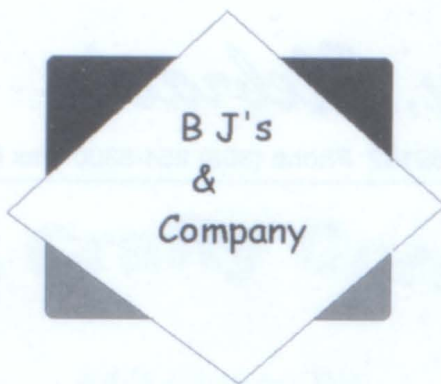

Our community's future is dependent upon good citizens that will help us build a better tomorrow right here. We are proud that Sidney, Nebraska has a built a reputation described in a unique community motto: Small Town Values, Big Time Opportunities. Always keep in mind as you go other places, if an opportunity presents itself to return, we would love to have you come back home.

The values you learned in a growing, prosperous rural community will serve you well in your future. We wish you the very best. Thank you for the many things you have done to make your school successful and your home town a better place for all of us to live, work and do business.

Sincerely,

Gary Person
